

Canadian Hospital

News

GRANVILLE
CHATHAM HOUSE

YARROW HOME
TOWNLEY CASTLE

VOL. IV

RAMSGATE, MARCH 17, 1917

No. 11

Ye Editor's Greeting

we know. Many weeks late-unable to satisfy belated There is every reason to be-photos grace this page, who administer this great Cana-Military Hospital so excel-pages of this issue you may News, but our little journal of the Granville Canadian management of time is a trementask. Lt.-Col. J. T.

honoured and desire to publish a better paper in the future.

O. C. J. W.

Our Birthday. A year ago this little paper was born. It was thrust into the world with the fourth quarto page empty and white, presumably as a sort of swaddling clothes for the infant. Copy was hard to obtain in those dim and distant days. The infant has grown into a very lusty child indeed and the boys love will continue to to escape censoriand such other that our birthdays desire is to serve the Canadian patients and their friends until the war ends. Then we shall die —gladly. We bespeak congratulatory words to-day, not for ourselves, but for those whose lently well. On other read about the success of the is only a very, very small part Special Hospital, the executive which at the present dous and onerous Clarke, as O.C., has surrounded himself with a brilliant staff. We wish that our distant readers could see the excellence of our different departments. Last week we received a letter from Lord Beaverbrook congratulating us upon our admirable publication. We feel

