

The Admiral Jauriquerry 1st class, with about 2000 difficulty, she carried only a small number of ^{Japanese} immigrants 241 in all, when she landed at Vancouver, however, the Honorable the Immigration Agent acting under the regulation of his department that "No person shall be permitted to land who is a pauper or destitute or likely to become a public charge," ~~demanded that each Japanese~~ ^{seeing that the several immigrants demanded that} ~~before landing~~ ~~should produce at least $25.00 to ensure that~~ ^{hardly} ~~any~~ ~~employment awaiting them~~ ^{he would not incur} ~~and that being supplied with the amount was about to reject~~ ⁽⁵⁰ a public charge; ^{Members of the Japanese Boarding} ~~Board~~ ^{Keepers' Union in Vancouver} ~~on learning~~ ^{that} ~~to~~ ^{a number} of Japanese had had arrived at the port and were about to be turned away for lack of funds, knowing that there would be little difficulty in securing for them immediate employment; and ~~thereby~~ ^{seeing the opportunity for} a slight revenue in the way of commission for their services, and possibly also out of subsequent business dealings, cause to the rescue of the party about to be rejected and advanced in cash the sum of only 3,000, as a guarantee bond ~~for a cash bond for $200,000~~ ^{which was accepted} ~~that the Japanese would not become public charges~~ ^{the}
~~of the doctor~~ ^{Dr. Lumero} ~~on the condition that he~~ ^{that employment had been secured by them} ~~should be shown later a certified copy of the~~ ^{where these were found}
~~to most men and where they were at work~~ ^{which would indicate that employment had been duly secured,}

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
 Volume C 38