Remarks.—The above are the usual form of notes. A note on demand, as No. 1, is due at any time when demanded, and interest at legal rate runs from demand unless otherwise stated. A note payable to S. H. or Order may be sold or negotiated if S. H. writes his name upon the back; and if payable to S. H. or Bearer, it can be sold without being indorsed, and will be good to the holder.

When two or more persons sign a note "severally and jointly," each is responsible for its payment.

A person indorsing a note, or writing his name across the back, becomes responsible for its payment. If, however, the person thus indorsing is not notified, when the note becomes due, of its non-payment by the drawer, he can no longer be held responsible for its payment. A partial payment of a note should always be indorsed on the same.
