

CONTENTS.

ix

PAGE

of Murder and his Execution.—Disagreement of the Ministry with the Governor and its Resignation.—De- parture of the Governor and Reconsideration of its Res- ignation by the Cabinet.—Sir John Young Succeeds as Governor.—Sir John Robertson Introduces his Land Bill.—Sir John Robertson becomes Secretary for Land and Works.—Introduction and the Passing of the Crown Lands Alienation Bill by Parliament.—Mr. Henry Parkes and Mr. W. B. Dalley sent by Government to England.—Trouble between Chinese and Europeans Causes Riots.—A Bill was Passed which Restricted the Freedom of the Chinese Entering the Colony.—Discus- sion Leading up to and the Passing of "Grants in Aid of the Public Worship Prohibition Bill," in 1862.—Res- ignation of Wentworth as President of the Legislative Council, Succeeded by Sir Terence Aubrey Murray.— Conference at Melbourne of Delegates from New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia and Tasmania, March, 1863.....	48
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

BUSHRANGING EPOCH.—THE O'FARRELL CASE.

The Prevalence of Bushrangers.—Bushranging Act.—
Fights of the Authorities with the Bushrangers.—A Season During which Non-appearance of the Bushrangers was Noticeable.—Revival of the Pest and Murder of Dr. Wardell.—Trial and Execution of some of the Gang.—Capture of the Jewboys' Gang and Their Extermination.—Steady Increase of Bushranging.—Special Measures Adopted to Cope with the Evil.—Trial of Alexander and Charles Ross and William O'Connor.—
Hold up of the Coach at Engowra, 15th June, 1862.—
Gang Overtaken and Chief Members Captured with Booty.—Capture of the Clarkes and their Execution.
—The Educational System up to 1848.—Mr. Parkes'
School Bill, 1866.—The Earl of Belmore Succeeded Sir John Young as Governor, 1868.—Visit of Duke of Edinburgh and Attempted Assassination by H. J. O'Farrell.—
"Bill for the Better Security of the Crown and Govern-