

THE
BISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA'S
CHARGE

TO THE
CLERGY OF THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC.

MY REVEREND BRETHREN,

THE information which You were so good as to transmit to me concerning the state of religion in this province, in answer to the Questions I had sent to You on that subject, increased the anxiety which I felt before, to visit this part of my charge as soon as possible.—I now sincerely praise the Almighty for his mercy in bringing us together, after travelling so great a distance—much greater than is usual on such occasions†.—On Your farther information, advice and exertions I much rely for assistance in the discharge

† The distance from Halifax to Quebec is reckoned one thousand miles. Some of the Clergy came about four hundred miles to the Visitation at Quebec.
