INCIDENTS OF BRAVERY ome of the Deeds Praised by Lord Kit-Boers in South Africa.

Incidents of gallantry reported by Lord Kitchener in his monthly review for October, 1901, go to show that the prevalent idea of staleness among the troops in South Africa is not altogether well founded. The following incidents are taken from a list which occupied about two columns in The Times: 1st (King's) Dragoon Guards. — Capt. F. C. Quicke, promoted Brevet-Major August 2, 1901, killed in action October 26, 1901, at Amsterdam, Orange River Colony, on August 2, 1901, pursued a convoy for eighteen miles, and when he reached wagons had only seven men him. With these he rode to the head of the convoy and stopped it, capturing 55 wagons and 16 carts, though a considerable of the enemy were in the Steinackers' Horse.-Lieut. J. A. Baillie, on July 4, 1901, having heard that two despatch riders had crossed the Portuguese border Swaziland, followed them with one man by moonlight, overtook them, and after a hand-to-hand fight killed them both and took their

Johannesburg Police-Eighty-eight, First-class Sergt: W. Parke, in command of 33 police at Roodepoort when that place was attacked on July 5, 1901, after repulsing attack led the volunteers who cleared the village, and was severely wounded in doing so, and 39 Tpr. E. Hampton, sentry at entrance to Village of Plorida when, on same date, 25 Boers galloped at him, held his position, and by his steady fire checked enemy until support arrived, when he had only three rounds left, his defence saved the post.

Menne's Scouts.—Lieut. A. B. Lubbock, at Joubert's Nek, on July.15, 1901, assisted Sergt. Cima to save a native scout whose horse had been killed, the Boers at the same time being within 150 yards and firing

R.A.M.C. - 13,631, Corp. W. W. Weeden, promoted Sergeant by Com-mander-in-Chief, at Bersefontein, Orange River Colony, on July 24, 1901, rode some distance under fire to assist a wounded man lying in the open, and stayed with him twenty minutes, being fired at all the Lord Kitchener, in reviewing Lord Methuen's operations in the south-west Transvaal, also reports this clever capture by Lieut.-Col. Wil-

"Lieut.-Col. E. Williams obtained information that a convoy under Commandant Vermaas was to the information north of him, near Katdoornplaats. He accordingly sent his wagons, under escort, towards Leeuwfontein to give the appearance of a continuance of the march in that direction, and with his Australians (New Wales Mounted Rifles and Bushmen) made a rapid night march upon Katdoornplaats, which he reached at 6.45 a.m. on the following morning. Their wheel tracks showed Col. Williams the direction taken by the Boers, and, after les, he was able to ride down and capture the whole convoy, with 18 prisoners, 65 oxwagons, 14 other vehicles, and 4,500 cattle. Amongst the prisoners were the late Landdrost of Bloemfontein and Du Toit, a telegraphist, with complete tapping apparatus. During this very successful e enter-d 60 miles in 27 hours, and brought away with them every one of the captured vehicles."

The National Memorial.

The National Memorial to Queen Victoria is to take the form of a colossal monument in front of Buck-ingham Palace, sixty feet in height, and rich in detail. The Queen will be shown seated and looking toward the Mall, while far above on the summit of the monument will be a winged figure of Victory. Other emblematical groups will be shown on various parts of the pedestal, the most notable being that of mother-hood, on which Mr. Brock, the sculptor has bestowed loving care.
