E. E. W. MCGAFFEY.

The regular meeting of the C. E. T. S. was held in the school room on Monday evening, 30th ult. The programme consisted of a recitation by Miss Bonnell, readings by Miss Ingle and Mr. Lockwood, song by Miss C. Wallace. Mr.
Rennie gave an address, which was intensely interesting, describing the sufferings and treatment of patients in the alcoholic cells of Bellevue Hospital, New York city. His description made one feel sad indeed. One month 231 patients were admitted, tradesmen and professional men representing 51 different trades and callings were found. Some when sent out would reform, but the majority returned to their old ways and many found their way back, again suffering from delirium tremens.
