

Which had to them, and all before,
As sayings dark remained.

Oh, let us now, who love the Lord
And in Him beauty see
In His blest company delight
As list'ning ones to be,

Waiting to have unfolded more
What much we want to know ;
More of His Person and His work
Whilst journeying here below.

THE TWO DISCIPLES GOING TO EMMAUS.

LUKE XXIV.

There are certain great principles of life—of life from the dead—of life in Christ—in which the saints of God are led out to walk to the glory of God. One of these is, “We walk by faith, not by sight.” In this we are at once brought to the sacred Scriptures, and to Christ of whom they testify, also having the Holy Ghost by whom the holy men of God were moved of old, by whom testimony is given to Christ and who dwells in us forever.

It does not say, We walk by faith, and by sight ; but, We walk by faith, not by sight.

The journey of the two disciples going to Emmaus has been given to teach us something of this. All God's children are taught it—it is one