The prize list of the Brandon Fair, to be held under the auspices of the Western Agriculture and Arts Association, July 29th to August 1st, at Brandon, Man., is a liberal and varied one and should attract a large entry of exhibits and a large attendance of visitors. The Brandon Fair has invariably been a successful affair, and visitors from the East and West find pleasure and instruction in its programme of events.

Mr. F. J. Clark, Brandon, Man., is the Secretary and Manager.

The Shorthorn cow White Heather, illustrated in this issue, was bred by Mr. J. B. Manson, Kiblean, Aberdeenshire, and is one of the Kiblean Beauty tribe, which have gained considerable fame as prizewinners in the hands of Mr. Manson and other Scottish and English breeders. She was exhibited with much success last year by her present owner, Mr. J. Deane Willis, winning the championship as best Shorthorn cow of any age at the Royal Show at Cardiff, and has been winning first prizes this year in nearly every contest she has been entered for. Her sire was Merry Mason (67486), by William of Orange, and her dam is Beauty 24th, by Morton (53330).
