March 5-schrs M C McLean, Meany, Boston of Peticodiac, resulting in the death of a young man by the name of Charles Chesley, of Albert County. It appears that he was caught in some way by the belt on the main shaft, used to turn a grindstone. By his own carelessness he hecame entangled, and received such injuries that he died in less than half an hour. Medical aid was promptly called but the unfortunate man was past help.—81.
