The Dread Voyage.
POEMS.

By WILLIAM WILFRED CAMPBELL,
Author of "Lake Lyrics," etc.
Cloth, 190 Pages, $1.00

The name of William Wilfred Campbell is not one that needs introduction to the Canadian public. The work he has done in his previously published book of verse, "Lake Lyrics," and in the poems which have appeared from time to time in the magazines, marks him as one of the brightest of the younger Anglo-Saxon poets. His poem, "The Mother" (included in the present volume), when it was published in Harper's Magazine last year, attracted perhaps more attention than any single poem written by an American ever received. The editors of the American magazines, and some of the daily newspapers, wrote editorials devoted to its merit, and the London Athenaeum, the great English literary authority, gave a long article on it. This new volume contains the best work Mr. Campbell has yet done. A large number of the poems in it have not before appeared in print. We present this book to the Canadian public, confident that its merits will ensure for it a large sale.

LATEST HATS
More Pronounced than ever—Fall Changes in the Mode.

The Hat is the only article of male apparel in the style of which any great changes are made, and in the matter of headgear everyone must comply with the requirements of Dame Fashion or remain hopelessly out of the swim.

This fall's Derby Hats are more pronounced in style than the spring and summer shapes, and the latest blocks are most graceful in design, while the colors are of such a range as will satisfy every man of taste.

Silk hats this fall have a sharp bell crown, nicely rolled on the sides, and are especially becoming to young men.

New fall styles have not as yet been seen in Toronto, but if you wish to be right up to date you will go to Dineen's to-day and select your hat from the big stock, which will then be opened for the first time.

The firm of W. & D. Dineen is the sole agent in the Dominion for the hats of the two premier manufacturers, Henry Heath of London, and Dunlap of New York. Besides an exclusive stock of these hats, the firm has an unequalled assortment of the hats of the following celebrated makers: Lincoln & Bennett, Woodrow, Tress, Christy and Stetson. No tasteful dresser will miss the grand opening to-day at
