THE LATE ELIAS HARMER.

NORTON, N. B., July 27.-Amidst manifestations of profound sorrow, the funeral of Elias Harmer took place resterday from his late residence. Previous to leaving the house a brief service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pincombe, Baptist minister, Norton, and E. Kerr, Presbyterian minister at Salina. The sad procession having moved to the Baptist church, the service was there conducted by the Rev. A. H .Campbell, Presbyterian minister, Stewiacke, N. S., and S. Farley, student, at present in charge of Norton Presbyterian church, of which deceased was both a devoted and valued helper. The Rev. Mr. Campbell, who was Mr. Harmer's personal friend and minister when both resided at Mechanic Settlement, Kings County, N. B., previous to the removal of the deceased to Norton, preached an able and comforting sermon, basing his remarks pon the 22nd verse of the 55th Psalm. At the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Farley sang as a solo, "Sleep on, Be loved, Sleep and Take Thy Rest," the benediction being pronounced by Mr. Campbell. At the grave the service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pincombe, Rev. Mr. Campbell and Mr. Farley, The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. T. A. McFarlane, Jas. Loughery, W. R. Carson, H. A. Myers, Jas. Murphy, all of Norton, and J. V. Jack-
