One in Seven Called by Consumption A dreadful plague indeed when considered that in incipient stages it can be cured. Take care of the little cough before it becomes a big one. When the throat is sore and it hurts, when you cough, when you spit, when you immediately apply one of Polson's Nerville Porous Plasters. Pain and tightness are at once relieved. Inflammation and soreness gradually disappear and fatal illness is thus avoided. Nerville Plasters act as a counter-irritant over the seat of the pain in the muscles, in pleurisy and headaches they have no equal. Keep these remedies in your home.
