What Teddy Thinks of Canada.

Canada has faced the time that tries men's souls and with gallant souls, and with gallant heroism she has risen level to the time's need. Mighty days have come to her, and she has been equal to the mighty days. Greatness comes only through labor and courage, through the iron willingness to face sorrow and death, the tears of women and the blood of men, if only thereby it is possible to serve a lofty ideal. Canada has won that honorable place among the nations of the past and the present, which can only come to the people whose sons are willing and able to dare and do and die at need.—Ex.

WEDDING BELLS

Cox—Blenus.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Blenus Wednesday, May 24th, when their eldest daughter, Evangeline Marion, was united in marriage to Charles Frederick Cox, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. A. Cox, Upper Dyke Village.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march which was beautifully rendered by Miss Ethel Miller the bride entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father. The drawing room was very tastefully decorated with roses, ferns and evergreens. Rev. Dr. A. C. Borden of the Canning Methodist Church performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a gown of white duchess satin and silk net, trimmed with dainty white rose buds, and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. About fifty guests, relatives and immediate friends were present. The bride was the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents consisting of silver, cut glass, china and several cheques.

After the ceremony delightful refreshments were served amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple motored to Wolfville where they boarded the train to visit Halifax and other Nova Scotian towns. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Cox will reside at Hillaton.

A Very Successful Year—Notwithstanding the War

Commencement Exercises at Acadia.

On Sunday morning College Hall was well filled with friends of the institution who listened to a very able Baccalaureate sermon by President Cutten. In the evening the address before the Y. M. C. A. was delivered by Rev. A. F. Newcombe of Fredericton.

Tuesday was a memorable day in the anniversary celebrations at Acadia university. The class day exercises of the senior class of the college were held in the morning. In the afternoon there were sports on the college campus, and the closing exercises of Acadia Seminary took place in the evening.

The past year has been a very successful one for the seminary. The total registration in all departments was 329 students, and the graduating class numbered 22. The graduating exercises were held in college hall and were witnessed by a very large crowd of friends and relatives of the graduates and of the institution. The cantata, "King Rene's Daughter," which was sung and acted by the Seminary Glee Club and soloists, was a notable feature of the graduation. The principal characters were taken by Misses Jean Mackie, Edith Gross, Gilbert and Kathleen Prescott. Essays were read by Misses Lena Keans and Marguerite A. Woodworth, and pianoforte solos were rendered by Misses Clark and Jennie Tozer. The various prizes were awarded as usual. Dr. H. T. DeWolfe, the principal, presided. The following are the names of those who received diplomas:

The field and track sports this afternoon were participated in by the members of the Wolfville detachment of the 219th Battalion. Most of these are Acadia men, and they made a fine showing. Sixteen prizes donated by local merchants, were contested for. A baseball game was played between a team from the detachment and a team from the 85th Battalion, resulting in a victory for the 219th.

The famous band of the 85th accompanied their athletes, and played a splendid programme of instrumental music.

The Sporting Events.

Sporting meets between the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade were initiated today when a baseball game was played on the Acadia Athletic field contested by teams from the Wolfville detachment of the 219th battalion and the 85th battalion. The former won by considerable margin. Prior to the game the 219th men held field and track sports for themselves, concluding with a tug of war. The band of the 85th, which motored down from Aldershot, discoursed music during the sports, which were organized by Lieutenant Noblett, of the 219th Wolfville merchants contributed substantial prizes, which were presented to the winners by Captain Dr G B Cutten.
