NIGHT SCENE IN A. BOARD. ING HOUSE.

A lady, whose husband is in California, Calcutta, or Chicago, suddenly awakened from her sleep the other morning about 2 o'clock, and spring. ing from her bed, dashed out of th rcom, en dishabille, screaming at the top of her voice, "Murder! help! murder! man in my room?" etc., etc, Under the circumstances this was quite natural, inasmuch as more than one mistake of this kind had happened in this house recently. Now it happened that no less than three husbands were absent when they should have been there, and consequently there was more or less wonder, mixed up with a species of apprehension, on the part of the wives, each one wondering whether it was her husband who had thus forgotten himself or the room.

"Oh, come quickly," shouted the terrified female, holding on to the outside door knob; "I've got him in."

If its my Josey," said another dis consolate, "I'll learn him better .-Confound these night suppers; nov he's been at one of them and has mistaken the room and there I've been alone all night-"

"Has he got whiskers," anxiously asked the wife, upon reaching the landing on the upper floor.

Yes ma'rm, great big, bushy whiskers, laying right alongside of my cheek when lawoke. Dear me, if my Alexander was here, he'd learn him better I'll warrent you,"

"Joseph, Joseph, Josey!" shouted the wife at the door.

No answer came; not even a grunt incident to inebriation.

"May be he has jumped out of the window," suggested the four or five females all at once, who made a splended group of long white darpery.

"Here-help? bring a light,"

"Come out of here, you scoundrel! Office and Errand Boys, said one of the men, at th grasping him by the hair.

On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak it terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after 30 years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

In the treatment of WORMS the principal indication is the EXPULSION of the Worms from the Bowels. This may be fulfilled in some instances by active Purgatives, which expel by increasing the peristaltic action of the bowels, or by Anthelmintics, which favor their expulsion through the ordinary contraction of the bowels by destroying them, or rendering them less able or less disposed to resist this contraction. Other preparations in use possess the inter property only, and to a feeble extent, for to produce it, it is necessary to give large and mauseous doses, and on the following day some purgative to carry off the effects of the previous day's medicine.

The combination of these two modes constitutes.
