A 'CROSS COUNTER TALK

Customer: "What constitutes good paint?"
Dealer: "Good paint depends on the materials used, the processes of manufacture, and the skill of the painter—no more, no less."

"Sherwin-Williams Paint, Prepared, is good paint—the best paint, in fact, that can be made. No care or detail is lacking in its manufacture. The materials employed are of the highest quality and are properly put together by experienced paint makers. The linseed oil—the vital part of paint—used in S.W.P. is made especially by The S.W. Co. in their own mill. The pigments are selected with greatest care and scrupulously tested. The tinting colors are products of the Company's own dry color works. And the mills used for grinding and mixing are designed and made in the machine shops of the Company. They embody the most advanced ideas in paint making. With such high quality materials, such care and attention, S.W.P. must be and is good paint all the way through."

POTATO CANKER DANGER

Potato Canker should not be allowed to gain a foothold in Canada. It is a disease that makes slow progress but where once broken out it has defied every known means of control. With the approach of the potato harvest all growers are particularly requested to examine their potatoes for signs of canker. A case of potato canker escaping detection forms a source of future infection.

The appearance of this disease has been well illustrated by the Farmers' Circular No. 3 obtainable free of charge from the Publication Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. Potato Canker owing to its serious nature has been made subject to certain legislative measures under the Dominion Destructive Insect and Pest Act. In order to familiarize the farmer with the requirements of the Act their attention is called to the following extracts: and other information concerning the necessary steps to be taken in case potato canker is discovered in any locality.

(1) On discovery of any signs of potato canker farmers should immediately notify the Dominion Botanist, Experimental Farm, Ottawa, of the outbreak, at the same time submitting specimen, when an inspector will be sent to assist and advise the farmer as regards the treatment to be given.

(2) Unless prompt action is taken and the authorities are notified without delay the whole crop of potatoes, whether "apparently" sound or diseased is liable to destruction.

(3) Cut off and burn all potato tops or stalks without removing them from the infected area.

(4) Dig at once all potatoes on your farm, carefully hand pick them and those already dug, and separate the diseased tubers from those "apparently" or perfectly sound.

(5) Place the diseased tubers in a pile and cover with earth. The inspector will advise you regarding their disposal.

(6) All perfectly or "apparently" sound tubers may be stored in the usual way, but none must be used for any purpose whatsoever until the inspector has given permission.

(7) Allow no tubers to remain in the ground, nor any animal to have access to an infected field. The organism causing the disease is liable to be spread through the excreta of animals having eaten infected potatoes in a raw condition.

(8) No raw potatoes whether diseased, "apparently," or perfectly sound must be used for any purpose what ever. After they have been examined by the inspector they may be boiled. Boiling will absolutely destroy the disease germ. All potato parings must be burned immediately.

(9) Under no circumstances may you dispose of, sell, receive or give away any potatoes resulting from a diseased crop, however slightly that crop may have been affected.

FARM PRODUCTS VIA THE PARCEL POST

The Government Investigating Possibilities of Carriage and Delivery

The extension of the parcel post system so as to provide a means of direct transportation of farm produce between producer and consumer will be considered by officials of the Post Office Department, who are planning the system.

The handling of such articles as eggs, poultry, butter, etc., by parcel post has been done with success in South Africa and the system is being investigated in Australia by the Commonwealth government. It is considered in Australia, according to a report received by the Trade and Commerce Department, that the farmer would benefit by receiving higher prices for his produce, while the consumer would also be able to obtain his supplies at less cost through the elimination of the distributor's profit.

PHILIPPSVILLE

A Short Sketch of the Haskin Family

Uri Haskin was born on lot 26, 7th concession of Bastard in the year 1800, when the land was nearly a dense forest. He, as he grew to manhood, cleared a piece of land and built a log house near the place where the commodious residence now stands. In 1821 he married Lydia Lorner, who died in 1830. Mr Haskin died in 1881.

Seven children were born to them: Moses, Uri, Solomon, Christiana, Chester, Justus and James.

Justus Haskin, born 1835, married Malinda Henderson in 1858, who died in 1882 and left 9 children, 8 girls and one boy. In 1884 he married Catherine Kenny, who survives with 11 girls. Their names are:—Almeda, Allura, Alice, Amanda, Anabel, May and Edith, all of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs Addie Binckle, Mrs Almada Bailey, Tompy, N. Y.; Mrs Percella Murdoch, Lyndonville, N. Y.; Mrs Della White, Hargrove, Manitoba.

Justus Haskin, whose death called forth the above sketch, died on the 21st of August, 1913, and was interred in the family plot on the farm where he was born.

On the death of Justus Haskin in the 77th year of his age, the widow and children have the heartfelt sympathy of their friends and neighbors in the loss of a loving husband and father.

Miss Fitzgerald, Kingston; Mrs D. Murphy, Brewer's Mills; Mr and Mrs Chas. Hamilton, Elgin; Mr and Mrs Jas. Milne, Brewer's Mills, were week end guests of Miss Celia Kennedy.

Aged Foresters Home

Following his intimation that within the next two years a home for aged Foresters would be provided, and that the order would not have to stand a cent of the cost, E. G. Stevenson, head of the Independent Order of Foresters, received the cheers after cheers from two hundred and six delegates at the supreme court, recently held in Toronto. At the close of his report Mr Stevenson went into the question of a home for friendless members of the order in a very extensive manner. Mr Stevenson will maintain the home out of his personal income, and at his death, two policies on his life will endow the home to the extent of $100,000.

PATRONIZE THE FALL FAIR

September can justly be termed the month of fall fairs. In Ontario the fall fairs and exhibitions are now in full swing and these are so numerous and widely scattered that there is scarcely a farmer in the province who will not find himself intimately connected either as an exhibitor or spectator in one or more of these. The fall fair has become a national agricultural institution and as such it behooves the entire farming community as well as the people of the country town and villages throughout the province to make it as good as they possibly can. There may be those who think that there are too many fairs; there may be those too, who think that these fairs fall short of what is expected of them in various ways. The time for criticism is not now; the right thing now is to try and make the local fair as big a success as possible. This can be done only in two ways: 1st by the largest possible number of exhibitors and 2nd by the largest possible attendance of visitors.—Ex.
