Feat of an Amateur. "Yep, looking for a saddle horse," admitted the wholesaler who was just back from his vacation. "I was raised among horses, you might say. I never boast, but I guess that I can ride anything that ever looked through a bridle. Just back from visiting an old chum that grew up next door to me. Has a great stock farm. Broke in a three-year-old colt for him while I was there."

"Any trouble?"
"Not a bit. Tied up his front lega and he fell so as to threw me through a corn crib. Didn't hurt. Old man came along and said I ought to be ashamed to cripple a horse in order to ride him. So I let the leg down. I scrambled on and he jumped before I was ready. That time I went through the top of a peach tree. Never felt it. Next trip me and the colt went down the road as though there were fireworks on his tail. "He stopped unexpectedly and I went over a wire fence into a ploughed field. I tore my trousers and ripped the tops of my shoes, but never broke the skin. The popular view of the relation of the blood to human character and conduct is marked in many a familiar expression. We speak of their being "bad blood" between people at enmity, of "blue blood" as indicating ancestry, of "black blood" as describing a treacherous nature, and in many another phrase mark our belief that in the mental, moral and physical man, "the blood is the life." The one basis of a healthful, happy and useful life is pure blood. With the blood pure, disease has no permanent lodging place in the system. For this reason the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery rids the body of diseases which have their origin in impurity of blood. It absolutely purifies the blood, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter, increasing the action of the blood making glands, and building up the body by supply-ing the blood in quantity and quality such as is essential to a condition o health. It cures ninety-eight people out of every hundred who give it a
