THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

"What is Home?"—one of 800 received by a magazine which asked the question, and the answers constitute the following very fine description:

Home—A world of strife shut out, a world of love shut in.

Home—The place where the small are great and the great are small.

Home—The father's kingdom, the mother's world, and the child's paradise.

Home—The place where we grumble the most and are treated the best.

Home—The centre of our affection round which our heart's best wishes twine.

Home—The place where our stomachs get three square meals daily and our hearts a thousand.

Home—The only place on earth where the faults and failings of humanity are hidden under the sweet mantle of charity.

Cutting off advertising may reduce expenses, but so does cutting your windpipe reduce the cost of living.

The difference between hog and pork is that nature makes the hog squeal and pork makes the consumer squeal.

A snob on the ladder of life is a man who kisses the feet of the one above him and kicks the head of the one below.

THE INNER MEANING

Good manners are not merely an empty form of social ritual; they express the personality of the one who exhibits them, and are tokens of kindness, gentleness, and a desire to do as much as possible for other people. They are the ointment that soothes the bumps and bruises we all suffer in the daily conflict, and the practice of them is our opportunity of showing the best that is in us, and making a reality of the dear tender things we all secretly cherish in our hearts. It is by failing to recognize this, and consequently by not bothering to give outward form to a thing that seems to have but little inner meaning that we so often hurt those we love the most.

PAT WAS TOO SLY

(From the Boston Transcript.)
 During their dinner hour Mike and Pat were playing cards. "O'll bet ye a quarter," said Mike, "that Oi can cut the ace of diamonds the first try."

"O'll go ye," said Pat.

Mike shuffled the cards, then laid them down and went into the adjoining room.

Returning with an axe he cut the deck cleanly in two with one blow.

"O'll thank ye for the quarter, Pat," he said triumphantly.

"No yez won't," returned Pat, fishing the ace of diamonds out of his pocket.

"Oi slipped it from the deck whin ye went after the axe."

LACKED THE KICK

Wishing to give his Scotch steward a treat, a man invited him to London, and on the night after his arrival took him to a hotel to dine.

During the early part of the dinner the steward was noticed to help himself very liberally to the champagne, glass after glass of the wine disappearing. Still he seemed very downhearted and morose.

Presently he was heard to remark, "Well, I hope they'll not be very long wi' the whiskey, as I 'dinna get on verra weel wi' these mineral waters."

—The Mail and Empire.

It is usually not so much the greatness of our own troubles as the littleness of our spirit which makes us complain.—Jeremy Taylor.

Almost every mail brings to our office copy which we are asked to publish free of charge. It is all propaganda except what is pure advertising matter. It clutters our waste paper basket and represents waste and nothing else but waste.

ACADIA MEMORIAL SERVICE

A unique memorial service was held here on Tuesday, May 30th, by the Alumni of the College. The former students of the beloved teachers of Acadia, now passed to their reward, assembled at the Baptist church and a pilgrimage was made to the old and new cemeteries stopping for a few minutes at each grave to cast a sprig of cedar and to say a few words commemorating the value of the deeds and potent influence of these pioneers of Acadia.

A beautiful day, with the warm sun shining, the breeze from the Basin of Minas blowing in the trees, the birds singing, and the familiar view from the hill top of mountain, river, valley, sea and sky, combined with the subtle influence of the victories won by these teachers of old who have finished the fight, gave all a new impetus in the way of what is highest and worthiest in human life.

The graves decorated were those of:

Dr. Crawley—Speaker, Dr. King.

Dr. Cramp—Speaker Miss Hilda Tufts.

Dr. Sawyer—Speaker Dr. Cutten.

Dr. Higgins—Speaker Rev. F. E. Roop.

Dr. Tufts—Speaker Dr. Goucher.

Prof. Chipman—Speaker Mrs. Faye Stuart.

Prof. Haycock—Speaker Rev. Mr. Knott.

Prof. Caldwell—Speaker Mrs. Leslie Eaton.

Dr. Jones—Speaker Dr. J. H. MacDonald.

J. W. Baras—Speaker Miss Mabel Archibald.

IS YOURS A MARCONI?

Marconi is the outstanding name in the wireless world and is now making the pioneer move in Radio in Canada. Their large factories and extensive laboratories are now working to capacity turning out the wonderful Marconi Radio Receiving Sets and accessories. For some years they have gradually been securing more and more exclusive patents along the radio line until today they have something over two hundred Canadian patents which makes Marconi Radio products distinct and most advanced.

A Marconi Broadcasting Station

A Marconi broadcasting station is being erected in Halifax. From this station we shall give musical concerts of all kinds, lectures, sermons on Sunday, etc. The latest news will be sent out several times daily. Results of sporting events, stock market reports, weather reports, etc., will be sent out at stated periods daily. All matters of interest or good amusement will be available from this Halifax Marconi Broadcasting station to anyone in Nova Scotia if they own a Marconi Radio Receiving Set. In fact, our broadcasting will be heard many miles beyond the confines of this Province. This means that the owners of Marconi Receiving Sets will not only hear the programmes given in many American cities, but will also get the Halifax programmes as well. It is all very wonderful.

Present Stock Situation

For many months it will be impossible for the Marconi factories to catch up with the tremendous demand. Until the time arrives when surplus stock will be available all orders must be booked in advance. This means that for a long time to come it will only be possible to secure Marconi Radio equipment by placing your order with your dealer, which order will be filled from each shipment of stock received by us according to dates orders are received. At the most the present situation indicates that this will only mean a delay of from two to four weeks after order is received before it is filled. We have arranged for this Province to get a particularly generous share of the Marconi output at all times, which will place us in a better position than possibly any other Province in Canada in respect to filling orders.

Place your order early and avoid disappointing delays.

Wholesale

We are now appointing representatives to cover Western Nova Scotia. All inquiries receive prompt attention.

Get the Most Out of Your Holiday!

The average business man is a poor holiday maker: he can never entirely forget his business.

A sudden recollection of some deal will cramp his swing, spoil his drive and give the game to Bogey.

Or it will cause him to show the butt of his rod too soon to the big fellow he has hooked, and the glory of his day's catch will have departed.

That happens, of course, simply because he has not recent, reliable information as to the deal.

He can get it easily enough.

A short talk with his place of business by the Long Distance Telephone will put him in touch with actual, latest developments.

Then, free in mind and light in spirit, he can get the utmost of enjoyment out of his day's sport.
