

AMUSEMENTS

The comic opera "Red Feather" played a return engagement at the Grand yesterday afternoon and evening to large business. The opera has been out considerably since it was presented by the company here last, and the evening performance was out at 10.15. The audience did not warm up very much, and there were few encores. Miss Cherid Simpson did not get as good a reception as her work in the leading role deserved. As the Crown Prince of Romania, Mr. Gus Vaughan acted and sang well.

Miss Bastedo's Recital.

The reserved seats for Miss Edna Irene Bastedo's recital on Easter Monday in Association Hall are going rapidly. With Harold Jarvis, the popular tenor, of Detroit, and Madam Ruby Harkness, Hamilton, a soprano of ability, as assisting artists, the programme should be a popular one. Miss Bastedo is supplying comedy, dialect stories and tragedy, which will suit all tastes. Mr. W. H. Hewlett will be accompanist.

Julia Was Innocent.

Boston, April 17.—Attorney Percy A. Brigham, of this city, who filed a divorce libel in the Essex County Superior Court, at Salem, recently, in behalf of Clara L. Von Hermann, against Karl S. Von Hermann, in which the actress, Miss Julia Marlowe, and Mrs. Maude Thorburn Backus, of Brooklyn, were named as co-respondents, has had the libel dismissed in the Superior Court.

Lawyer Brigham said to-night he was convinced after careful sifting of the evidence that the source of Mrs. Von Hermann's information was wholly unreliable.

Passion Music.

It is to be regretted that a larger number of musical people did not attend the Passion music as given by the Century choir under the direction of Mr. W. H. Hewlett, Mus. Bac., last evening. It was one of the musical treats of the season. Never has choir work proven more satisfactory than the efforts of the Century last evening. One seldom looks for such well-balanced tone as was displayed from an amateur choir, and Mr. Hewlett is to be congratulated on his excellent success. The work of the choir was thoroughly artistic, and the ensemble was beautiful in its treatment. Some unaccompanied parts of the piece were delightful in their freshness and purity of tone, and were so well handled by Mr. Hewlett as to bring out every beauty. Haydn's Passion is not only been given in this city in years, and it is safe to say that there has never been better work accomplished by any choir in the city.

The heaviest portion of the solo work fell to Miss Adeline Smith, the soprano, and she acquitted herself in a thoroughly artistic manner. The tone she displayed, although rather light in texture for the strength of the choir, was always sweet and pure. The delicate passages of the soprano parts were delightfully rendered.

Mr. Victor Hutchinson was troubled with a severe cold, and could not do justice to himself or his solos, but despite the fact he handled his solos with precision and excellent taste and judgment. His duet work with Mrs. Allan was particularly good. Mrs. Allan and Mr. McIntosh had little to do, but what they did was done in their usual finished manner. The quartette was excellent and had many fine passages throughout the work.

Orchestral Concert.

The Sunday School of St. John Church was crowded last evening on the occasion of the annual concert given by the choir, under the leadership of Miss Jean Hunter. The playing of the orchestra showed careful training and reflected much credit on both leader and players. The overture Zampa, was given with a snap and finish that any professional orchestra might be proud of, and brought a hearty encore. The string numbers were particularly pleasing for their delicacy and expression.

Mr. Taylor's clarinet solo was played in masterly style and he had to respond to an enthusiastic encore.

Mr. Cumming is already well known as a concert soloist, and his rendering of the polka was one of the features of the evening, while his encore "Kil-larney" and the solo in Miserere, showed to advantage his excellent tone and finish. Miss Gwendolyn Elmslie played the accompaniment in a capable manner.

Following is the programme:
March—Vivacity..... R. O. Ripley
Overture—Zampa..... Harold
Intermezzo—Cavalleria Rusticana (Mascagni)

(Strings only.)
Clarinet solo—Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, (T. H. Robinson)

Mr. Arthur Taylor
Selection From Il Traviatore—Miserere (Verdi)

Salve Regina..... V. H. Hammer
Descriptive Fantasia—A Day with a Circus (J. B. Lamp)

Adagio (from Sonata Pathétique)..... (Beethoven)

a Romance from L'Eclair..... Halevy
B. Pizzicati Serenade..... Corit

(Strings only.)
Cornet solo—Impromptu Polka..... (J. O. Casey)

Mr. Harold Cumming
Scott Selection—The Thistle..... Puerner

March Militaire..... Schubert
Leslie Harris.

One of England's greatest entertainers at the piano, Leslie Harris, appeared in Association Hall on Thursday evening before an audience of large proportions, and kept it thoroughly amused for almost two hours with a diversified programme of musical sketches and illustrations, stories and piano solos. Hamiltonians have up to the present recognized George Grossmith as the premier performer in this form of entertainment, but Mr. Harris easily ranks with the great G. G. in most things and excels him in not a few of Grossmith's special lines. Mr. Harris, to begin with, is a cultured pianist, apparently fully capable of playing the best works; and added to this he has a facility of composition and an adaptability that go far towards fitting him as an entertainer. He, too, has a good voice, a ready wit and a face that easily wreathes itself into the smile that makes others smile, and smile again.

Opening with two of his own piano compositions, a Romance and a Mazurka, he went on to a sketch, "Old Songs and New Books," in which he, to his own and evidently to the audience's satisfaction, showed the usefulness of some old songs and the uselessness of some new books. Another sketch included a satire on the reigning Merry Widow craze, in which he played the opening phrases of the waltz as Mozart, Chopin, Mendelssohn or Sousa might have written them. Very clever, too, were sketches detailing "My Wife's Afternoon" and "Amateurs in Opera," and monologues entitled "Christmas Bells," "If," and "O Memory." Besides these there were "Aur Davey," a cozier song; "A Wagnerian Joke," and several uproariously funny stories.

Mr. Harris is undoubtedly a mimic and story-teller of the first water, and Thursday evening's audience was greatly pleased with him and applauded him most heartily at every opportunity. It is to be regretted that a Hamilton audience had not an earlier introduction to the new entertainer, for they would welcome the return of Mr. Harris.

The Vitagraph.

The annual exhibition of boxing, wrestling and fencing of the athletic students of the Hamilton School of Physical Culture will be given on Tuesday evening next at the school, 25½ King street east.

Owen Moran, disgusted at his failure to get another chance at Attell, has sailed for England. He said before sailing that the only thing that could induce him to return was the assurance that he would be given a finish match with the champion. Moran leaves America about $7,000 richer than when he landed here.

"My Little Fidget."

Edna Irene Bastedo has just completed the writing of a charming little monodrama, entitled "My Little Fidget," which will be given on Monday evening next in Association Hall. Miss Bastedo has undertaken this extra task at very short notice, under Mr. Cleworth's personal direction.

VIEWED REMAINS.

Body of Dead Priest in St. Augustine's Church.

Dundas, April 18.—The remains of the late Rev. Mr. Heenan were brought from Hamilton on Wednesday and placed in the audience room of St. Augustine's Church, where they were viewed yesterday by many hundreds of people. Among all classes and creeds the venerable prelate was held in very high esteem, and his death caused universal sorrow. Owing to the presence of the remains the Good Friday services yesterday were only observed in part. The remains will be buried under the altar of the church on Monday morning at 10.30.

A meeting of the Finance Committee of the Town Council was held on Wednesday evening to consider the application from the Board of Education for a grant of $10,000 to erect a high school building on the site of the present school buildings. After a thorough discussion of the matter the committee's decision was to recommend the grant, without submitting the by-law to the people, provided a majority of the electors entitled to vote on such a by-law petition the Council to do so. The result of this was that a meeting of some members of the Board of Education and others was held on the same evening, and after making out a list of the freeholders entitled to vote in the case, appointed M. T. Sullivan and John Douglas to canvass for signatures to the petition. This work was begun yesterday, the result being a hearty response from the ratepayers. That the town will soon have what it has badly needed for many years—a good high school building—seems now certain. The principal trouble in the past has been to agree upon a site.

Mayor Moss yesterday celebrated the 25th anniversary of his marriage by a quiet gathering of family relatives. The V. M. C. A. road races yesterday were about the only recreations of the day, the gun club shoot failing to come off. The race winners were Ollie Ferguson, Bruce Reid and Alex. Reid in the junior race, and, in the senior race, S. Hendall, John Murray and H. Burton were the victors, both in order of mention.

Among holiday visitors in the town were John Arthur from Toronto, John P. Casey from St. Catharines, Mrs. Garvin from Brantford, Colin Patton from Toronto, and Joseph Hickey from London.

Among citizens who spent the day out of town were Miss Camilla Lawry in Stratford, and Misses Sara and Lily Watson and Miss Ellen Robertson in London.

Miss Stephens, of Dresden, is a visitor with Mrs. C. H. Gordon.

AT AGE OF 86.

Death of Mrs. Mary Marshall This Morning.

Mrs. Mary Marshall, an old and highly respected resident of this city, died to-day at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. T. Day, 279 MacNab street north. She was 86 years of age and had been ill a long time. She is survived by two sons, William Marshall, of this city, and J. H. Marshall, of Essex, and her daughter, Mrs. Day. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock to the Grand Trunk station. The interment will be at Port Hope.

Mrs. Mary A. Dawson died in the City Hospital yesterday. Cancer was the cause of her death. Deceased was a native of Mitchell, Ont., and had resided in the city for the past four years. She leaves a husband and two children. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Blackfords & Sons parlors. Rev. Canon Abbott officiated.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Haynes took place yesterday afternoon from Gospel Tabernacle, and was largely attended. Rev. P. W. Philpott conducted services and the pallbearers were D. Hardie, J. Gallagher, A. Thatcher, R. Smith, B. Rymal, B. Carruthers.

The funeral of Henry Bunton took place from the residence of Dr. Husband, 122 James street south. Rev. D. R. Drummond conducted the services and the pallbearers were A. W. Pearl, Col. Kerns, Ed. Peart, George Allan, J. Smith, W. Parke.

WORTHLESS CHEQUES.

Sarnia, Ont., April 18.—A man who gave his name as James B. Young and a Port Huron address that is now found to be a vacant lot, is being searched for by the police of Sarnia for passing worthless cheques on the Bank of Commerce and the Bank of Toronto here.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Company has let the contract for a two million bushel elevator at Port William.

ODDFELLOWS' DAY.

1,500 Saw Degrees Worked Here Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon over 1,500 Odd-fellows assembled at the Armory rink for the purpose of witnessing the work of four degrees. The session opened at 1.30, District Deputy Grand Master Bro. C. H. Mann presiding, and delivering an address of welcome. A reception was also tendered the American brethren, who were present from Buffalo, N. Y., Allegheny, Pa., Niagara Falls, N. Y., also brethren from Niagara Falls, Ont., and other places. The initiatory degree was conferred under the auspices of Crescent Lodge, of Hamilton, who secured the presence of Canton Hamilton, No. 4, P. M., under command of Commandant R. J. Faulkner, who conferred that degree in a very creditable manner, after which was conferred the first degree by Unity Lodge, No. 47, under command of Captain G. O. Luke. It is unnecessary to say that Bro. Luke's team excelled themselves, as those who witnessed the work expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the attainment of perfection. The session closed at 5.45, and reopened at 7.30 sharp, when Excelsior Lodge, of this city, conferred the second degree, under command of Captain Drinkwater, followed by the third degree, which was conferred by Empire Lodge, St. Catharines, under command of Captain Haines. These teams worked the degrees in the best manner possible. The degree work being closed, an address was given by Bro. S. C. Parks, P. D. G. M., Toronto, which was much appreciated, as Bro. Parks is an aspirant for the office of Grand Warden, and his presence was much appreciated. A musical sketch was given by Messrs. Bennett and Featherstone; instrumental selection, harmonica and guitar, A. Taylor, instrumental, F. Mitchell; address, P. G. M., Bro. J. B. Turner; comic sketches, Messrs. Bennett and Featherstone. Addresses were also given by the following brethren: J. A. Grubb, P. G., and Bro. Haines, P. G., St. Catharines, and Bro. D. A. Snider, P. D. G. M., district No. 3, Buffalo, Misspah Lodge, No. 518. The meeting was brought to a close by a few well chosen remarks by the D. D. G. M., Bro. Mann, at 11.45. Delegations were present from St. Catharines, Merriton, Grimsby, Oakville, Dundas.

BRYCE-VIPOND.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Vipond, 72 Tisdale street was the scene of a pretty house wedding on Thursday afternoon when their second daughter Mary was united in happy wedlock with Mr. Robert S. Bryce, of this city. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, who was best man, and while the groom followed up with the bridesmaid, Miss Hattie Vipond, dressed in white Swiss muslin with a cream satin jumper and carried a large bouquet of cream roses. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations. The knot was tied by the Rev. F. W. Hol-linrake, pastor of Zion Tabernacle, who had known the bride from girlhood. After the marriage ceremony the happy party retired to the room at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tunan, where the tables were laid. The bride table was all decorated in pink and looked very pretty. The bride's going away suit was of maroon colored French velvet. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold ring set with rubies and pearls; the gift to the best man was a crescent stick pin set with a ruby. The out of town guests were from Pittsburg, Pa., and Toronto, and the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon to the other side of the border amid showers of rice and confetti.

BOWIN AS EVANGELIST.

Thinks the Experience Should Fit Him for the Role.
Detroit, April 17.—Percy Bowin, the youth who was recently found not guilty of the murder of Mrs. Cornelia Welch, announces from the seclusion of the dear old vine-clad home of his boyhood in Woodville, Ont., that he is confident that he might shine as a star performer in the pulpit.
His aspirations, as well as his attitude towards those who participated in the tragic drama in which he played the star role while in Detroit, are best presented in the letter written by Bowin to a friend in this city.
The letter:
"I can't account for my wrong doing only, that I was in a destitute condition, fell into the hand of the wicked women who had had influence over me. I know I did wrong, I sinned with them. I am sorry, very sorry to think I disgraced my poor mother, father, brother and myself by so doing.
"You ask me in regard to my future plans. I hope to be able to go to a theological seminary by fall. God has been good to me and I know if I do His will He will enable me to carry out my plans.
"I feel I can do much good by fitting myself to carry out such a vocation. It has been my desire all my life time. Then to I know it is what my mother wants me to do and what she is praying daily for. I am sure after my own experience I can talk to young men and show them what it means not to do right."

TO STEAL FOR THEIR BREAD.

Accusation Made Against Some Enterprising Foreigners.

One Found Guilty and Sent Down For Month.

O'Connor and Vozdik Cases Come Up Next Week.

Yesterday afternoon Constable Brannon saw eight foreigners walking down Sherman avenue with bags over their backs, and, following them down, he telephoned for assistance and kept watch on a house they had entered at 133 Sherman avenue north. Constables Sayer, Piclett and Burch were sent down and with Brannon they entered the house and captured the eight foreigners, and after searching the house found nearly a ton of coal in bags, which the men are alleged to have taken down. The eight appeared this morning to answer to a charge of stealing it from the Belt Line Junction on the T. H. & B., and all pleaded not guilty. Mr. Washington wanted one of the men, M. Strik, discharged, so that he could be called to give evidence against his seven comrades, but the Magistrate would not consent. As Joe Shugar is the boarding boss at the place that was raided, the police decided to look into it further, and obtained a remand till next week. In the meantime the men are allowed out on their own bail.

Another instance of the boarding boss sending the unemployed boarder out for fine was brought up. Peter Colinge was up on Thursday, and pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing lumber from the G. T. R. He was remanded till to-day for sentence, as he claimed his boarding boss, Lubin Gaspar, 277 Bay street north, sent him for the lumber, and took charge of it. Gaspar was up this morning, and pleaded not guilty, charged for a summary hearing. Colinge said that Gaspar sent him to the yards of the G. T. R. to get some lumber he would point out to him, and he carried it to the defendant's house. Another boarder was called, but he refused to testify in the face of threats of jail and other things. He gave his evidence at the request of the prisoner, however, although he was badly lectured for trying to hold up a Canadian court by the Magistrate. Gaspar was found guilty, and given a month in jail, while Colinge was allowed to go.

William O'Connor, 24 Wood street west, who was arrested Thursday afternoon on a charge of assaulting and robbing Mary Vozdik, was up this morning. Mr. M. J. O'Reilly appeared for him. The case was laid over till Monday. Mary Vozdik was then charged with the theft of the money that was stolen from her by some one, supposed to be O'Connor. Felix Sujeska was the complainant. This case was also laid over till Monday.

Mr. O'Reilly appeared for Mary also.

Edward Allen was arrested as he was boarding a C. P. R. train for Toronto on Thursday by Detective Bleakley. He was charged with vagrancy, and when he appeared in court this morning he pleaded not guilty. Detective Bleakley said Allen was wanted in Toronto for the theft of a lady's coat worth $40, and he was remanded till Wednesday to see what the Toronto authorities want done with him.

Edward Tuck, James street north, was arrested by Constable Duffy at Cathcart and Cannon streets with his coat off, calling loudly for a fight. He was fined $3 for being drunk and disorderly.

over till Monday. Mr. O'Reilly appeared for Mary also.
