On y A Matter of Time. Without expressing any opinion as to the truth or falsity of the charge against D. G. Smith of the Advance, that he collared illegally his neighbor's ancient clock, it may legally his neighbor if there is expecting that if legally his neighbor's ancient clock, it may be observed that if there is anything that a Miramichi man might be justified in appropriating, it is an old fashioned time piece. The newer clocks and watches never agree and a man can never tell what time it is when he is on the classic waters of that far famed branch of the St. John, as the London News calls it. A recent visitor to that locality said that there were no less than seven distinct standards of time recognized in Chatham and Newcastle, viz. I. C. R. time, Telegraph time, Chatham time, Newcastle time, Northern & Western time, dinner time and a high old time. He probably had the latter and stated the case somewhat strongly: but there's variety enough no doubt to make any man covet one of his grandfathers clocks, which would be more in harmony with the revolution of the earth if less in accord with modern interestings. G. F. Baird Caps the Climax.

To the Editor of the Herald: SIR,—During the election campaign Victoria county, Mr. Geo. F. Gregory charged the Tobique Valley railway company with signing an agreement to pay me $3000 to buy the support of certain members of the legislature for a subsidy towards building said railway. At the time I gave it a most positive

I supposed that as the election was over and the purpose was accomplished for which this unfounded charge was made, the matter would end. But upon my arrival in Fredericton yesterday, I learned that Mr. Gregory had at a meeting in the county of York repeated the charge, and the Gleaner, which I am credibly informed is Mr. Gregory's organ, is republishing such charges. I feel in duty bound, in justice to myself, and in order that no reflection may be cast on other parties concerned, to say in the most emphatic manner possible that the whole story is an utter falsehood.

No director or any member of the Tobique Valley railway ever made such an agreement, nor was any such agreement ever mad or contemplated by anybody. Yours truly, GEO. T. BAIRD.

Letter from the Provincial Secretary.

I find the following in the report of a speech delivered by Mr. George F. Gregory at his place will be filled by Frank Good, of Stanley, referring to what is now known as Woodstock.

the charge of Gregory against Baird:

"After he (Gregory) had finished speaking, Mr. Mitchell addressed the meeting at Birch Ridge and there said, apparently forgetting that he had denied all knowledge of the matter, that he would tell them all about this $3,000 agreement. The railway had seriously damaged the highway in building the railroad and the government had insisted that this $3,000 should be paid to Mr. Baird out of the subsidy to repair the damage. Now (said Mr. Gregory) you can judge whether there was such an agreement or not, and whether the government had anything to do with it, he thought it pretty clear there was an agreement to pay $3,000 out of the subsidy."

The above is as gross, and I believe, as wilful a misrepresentation of what was said by me at Birch Ridge, as it is possible for a person to make, and I am surprised that Mr. Geo. F. Gregory should have been guilty of making it. What I did say at Birch Ridge was this: That I did not believe there was a syllable of truth in the charge which Mr. Geo. F. Gregory had made against Mr. Baird; that there was nothing in the transaction, which, I believed from my knowledge as a member of the government, would afford the slightest pretext or justification for any such charge. The only thing I said there about a $3,000 appropriation being made out of the subsidy, and which had been distorted and twisted by Mr. Gregory was this: that in conse quence of the condition in which the rail way company had left the highway road council relating to the subsidy stipulated amount would be required, should be reserved by the government out of the subsidy to be laid out by the chief commissioner of the board of works in restoring the highway road to its former condition. It is utterly false in Mr. Gregory to say that I stated that $3,000 was to be paid to Mr. Laird for too absurd to have been repeated by Mr.

JAMES MITCHELL.

Alexander Straton Denies it.

SIR, - In the Gleaner of the 15th instant see a report of a speech made by G. F. Gregory at Stanley on Saturday last in which he makes some statements which it would not I think be well to allow to pass unnoticed. Mr. Gregory is reported in the Gleaner as

Now in the first place, I will say that no such agreement was signed by me and further, that it could not have been signed by three Stratons, who were directors of the Blair company," unless it were signed by me; nor do I believe that any such agreement was made by any member of the company. I can hardly credit that Mr. Stewart would nanufacture such a story out of whole cloth and tell it to Gregory, although I would be very sorry to think Mr. Gregory had a hand in originating it. The latter part of the statements referring to Mr. Brymer, I can say nothing about, as I fail to see where the onnection between Mr. Brymer and the alleged agreement comes in. I should not have taken any notice of the tatements made regarding this matter during the Victoria election, as I had no doubt the Gregory charge against Mr. Baird in reference to the Tobique railway, which one I cannot allow their reiteration after posthey were got up for election purposes; but of the undersigned made in the St. John | itive denial of the same having been publish-Gazette, we find to-day on our arrival in ed without contradiction: and I do Fredericton that Geo. CAPITAL SPEECHES RECEPTION.

What was intended as a gathering of a few olitical friends of the government at Stanley has been magnified by the opposition into an event of quite mammoth proportions. The attorney general and Mr. Wilson, having occasion to visit Stanley on some bridge business, sent notice in advance to to talk over the political questions of the Burchill that the party would nour before as many of their constituents as could conveniently get together in the agricultural hall. The result was a splended gathering of yoters. Dr. Moore took the chair, called the meeting to order and re-Mr. Wilson

He said his conduct as their representative, in some particulars, had been criticised very severly, but he thought without much eason. One of the most frequently reiterated charges was that he was chairman of the Leary committee, and that his rulings as chairman had been attacked by the opposition. He said the appointment was not of his own seeking, nor had there been any bjection taken at the time, to his acting in that capacity. The rule there was to select as members of an investigating committee a fair portion from each side, and those who

Dr. Atkinson, who made the charge was a member of the committee, and he (Wilson) thought that if the accuser was competent to sit on the committee, he could not very well understand why he (Wilson) should be disqualified because his wife happened to be a cousin of the wife of the attorney general. As to his rulings as a member of the committee he had excluded no evidence W. Donovan, the Shamrock B. Leary Dock Charge had been the chief staple of the opposition during the session. It had been whispered among the members in the early part of the sion, that a blow was going to be dealt the attorney general which would crush him and crush his government. The charge was delayed until the session was well advanced, with the deliberate purpose, as he believed, of preventing its full investigation and in the hope that the session would be closed before the committee could report. Then the election petition would be pushed in the recess, and with this untried accusation hanging over Mr. Blair's head, it was ton, have been in the city for some days the hoped he would be prejudiced before his con-

Yet out of 41 members, not one could be found who had the boldness to say that the charge had not been disapproved; and only eight members declined to censure Dr. Atkinson. Taking up the general administration of the government, Mr. Wilson showed that expressed his readiness to meet all its policy had proved very successful that the excellent and that every department of the public service received the most painstaking attention. He was accorded a splendid reception and his points were heartily apfollowed and delivered one of the most impressive speeches which had ever been heard from him in that parish. He began by refering to the facts that during the seven years which had preceded the last general election, the government had retained, he might say, the undiminished support of an unprecedentedly large number of the peoples representatives. At the close of the session of '89, the government had only lost the support of two members, and these had gone into opposition, because of the refusal of the railway subsidy scheme.

government to embark in another large By the appointment of the police magistratein St. John the government had lost six members from St. John, which counted 12 on a division. The four members from Northumberland had not been elected against the government on its general policy any more than the St. John six. Their grievance was the high rate of stumpage, and the present surveyor general on the hustigs had frankly admitted that they had no fault to find with the administration except on the question of stumpage. Finding the leading members of the op position endeavoring to oust the government by taking advantage of the feeling in

The county councils of the four northern counties had memorialized the government on the quesion, and in reply to numerous delegations, and in the discussions which had taken place in the house, the government invariably stated that it would favorably consider the application as soon as the state of the revenue would permit. The revenue from the stumpage for the year 1888 had increased over the preceding year, and that for 1889 had still further increased, so that it was apparent that with a large cut of lumber for 1890, the concession to the event of 25 seats.

The Situation Then was This. The revenue would not be less; the grievance was still as great as ever, and it was perfectly apparent that if the government declined to make any concession and give place to the opposition, a still larger reduction would be conceded than that proposed. He pointed out that no one questions in the face of the evidence adduced that the opposition would not scruple at any cost to get possession of the seals of office. Every leading member of that party, and other members who were not leading members, were by personal assurance and by written communication urging the Northumberland members to go into opposition, and that for sale by they would deal generously by them in the Times, owned by Mr. Stevens one of the opposition members, denounced the stumpage tax as an exorbitant tax, and he was delegated to visit Northumberland and assure The Canadian Pacific Railway, the members that the opposition would go further in the way of reduction than the government could possibly do. The Sun had made the government's action with reference to the stumpage a leading ground of attack for years past. At the opposition caucus, which was held in St. John, a committee of two members was appointed to wait upon one of the Northumberland members and assure him that the opposition were prepared to meet their wishes, and they did wait upon Mr. Burchill and gave him that assurance. Mr. Smith another opposition member wrote to Mr. Adams urgins him to prevail upon the Northumberland members to act with the opposition and that they would see them dealt liberally by in the matter of the stumpage reduction some of their friends that they would be glad Messrs. The leader of the opposition and other members had in the house repeatedly demanded that the rate should be reduced, Mr. Hanington even naming 50 cents as a sufficient rate; and as late as the session of '89, Mr. Phinney from Kent, in calling attention to the memorial of the Kent municipality, expressed the hope that the government would be able to see its way clear to make some re-Mr. Blair went on to say that on examin ation of the record would show that the government had not taken the extreme position on the stumpage question as it is now alleged they did, and that it was not inconsistent on its part to relieve the industry. The matter settled down to whether they should fix the stumpage at a dollar, or the opposition shouldcome in power and make it 80 cents. There was no matter of policy involved; it was a mere question of detail, and was similar to questions that are requently dealt with by the federal government, which puts on and takes off, increases and diminishes the taxation on the same class of imports, as pressure from their friends, and the condition of the finances from time to time may warrant. Dealing with the so called whitewash bill, he showed that the legislation was in line with what had been and although it had been said that the act was passed to kill out existing election petitions, there was not a syllable in the act to that effect, and its provisions were very much less objectionable than similar acts which had been passed in the dominion parliament by both liberal and conservative governments, expressly declared to be applicable to proceedings that were then pending.

He then took up the finances of the province, and showed that they were in a healty condition, and that the public exwould be remembered that the opposition had accounted for the bringing on of the elections in January by the dread of the government to have their expenditure for the previous year exposed. This expenditure, however, which the government have been afraid to have investigated, was all critically examined by the public accounts ouchers, details and full information were laid before the committee. Officers were examined and everything minutely gone into, and although that expenditure covered thousands of items, was disbursed through hundreds of different hands, and amounted to the sum of $650,000. The only item that could be found to object to, was

The audience followed him very closely, indicating their hearty approval as point after point was made and loudly applauding him as he concluded his two hours and a quarter speech. The meeting was now over and people were about leaving when G. F. Gregory, who in company with W. K. Allen, John Moore and J. H. Crocket, who had driven from Fredericton, arose and said that he wanted to make a speech. The chairman said he could not do so without the permission of Messrs. Blair and Wilson, which being promptly accorded, Mr. Gregory began his speech and only stopped when midnight came and the chairman told him it was Sunday morning. Mr. Gregory said he was not particular about such things; but it turned out that the people were, and the uninvited guest sat down. A number of young lads, marshalled by Crocket, kept up a fusilade of applause during Mr. Gregory's speech. They did not always come in at the right time; but it was better than
