Paragraphs of Interest From Britain and the Continent.

In England Next.
Owing to Graham White's win in 1910, the next Gordon-Bennett aero-plane race is to be held in England over a ninety-four mile course.

Flying Half-Mile.
A Miss Stewart has covered a flying half mile on Brooklands, England, motor track at a speed of over eighty-nine miles an hour on a 120 h.-p. car.

A Youthful Boxer.
Sambo Cleafe, the five-year-old boxer of England, and who turns the scale at 20 pounds, is willing to box any boy in the kingdom his own age and weight.

Footballers' Weights.
The smallest goalkeeper in the first league belongs to Middlesbrough, while Sunderland has the distinction of possessing the heaviest set of players in the same league.

Tall Players.
There are less than thirty footballers in the first league who are over six feet in height. The majority of them are goal keepers, half a dozen or so of them are backs, and only one forward.

A New Industry.
An enterprising photographer in Edgeware Road has purchased an aero-plane which formerly belonged to the Hon. Alan Boyle, and he is reaping a rich harvest by taking pictures of budding fliers in the machine.

Fast Motor Sleigh.
A motor-sleigh that can travel over the snow at a speed of over forty miles an hour has just been built for the Grand Duke Cyril of Russia. The sleigh is propelled by a large, many bladed air propeller which forces the vehicle along.

A Great Fencer.
One of the greatest fencing-masters of the age, Kirchoffer, has lost both of his legs through gangrene, and all the world's great fencers will appear at his benefit in Paris this month.
Kirchoffer never refused to give a display for charity except once, when asked to go to Berlin by the Kaiser.

Aeroplane O. K.
The Paulham aeroplane, which has been built in France for the British Government, has fulfilled all conditions. It had to make a two hours flight with a passenger and a load of 440 pounds, and fly in a wind of eighteen miles an hour.

England's Honor.
It looks as though England, in the person of Owen Moran, of Birmingham, will have the honor of winning the light-weight boxing championship of the world. The present holder, Ad Wolstag, is dodging Moran in every conceivable way, and rather than tackle the Birmingham boy he has accepted the challenge of a much inferior boxer—English Exchange.

Fog Stopped Game.
At a recent Cup-tie match played between Clapton Orient and Woolwich Arsenal on the former's ground, which was witnessed a sight never seen on a football field before. Ten minutes from the kick-off of the second half the game was stopped on account of the fog, making it impossible to follow the game. Three parts of the spectators lit their newspapers and programmes and formed torchlights, which caused much amusement; but after a while the referee thought it advisable to stop the game.

How to Grow Hair.
It has been proved that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. McMurdo & Co., your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into St. John's and a large generous bottle, can be procured for 50c.

EMBROIDERIES!

A cable to our Agent in Switzerland to send us a big lot of high-grade Embroideries to be retailed at the figures we quoted, met with a reply from him, saying that he was sending absolutely the best lot of Embroideries, Insertions and Edgings obtainable in St. Gall.

There are no old goods—every yard is perfectly fresh

Yankee Rogers

TELLS HOW IT FEELS WHEN DEADLY TOE HOL DIS APPLIED
BY CHAMPION GOTCH.

Says He Felt as if Every Bone, Tendon and Muscle in His Body Had Been Drawn as Tight as a Harp-string—The Sensation was Terrible —Toe Hold is Most Deadly Hold in Wrestling.

Dr. Roller, Henry Ordeman, Mort Henderson and half a dozen other wrestlers have come out in favor of placing the toe hold in the same class as the strangle hold and barring its use in wrestling matches. The toe hold is the deadliest invented in recent years. Frank Gotch first saw its possibilities and used it on his opponents, with the result that he won his matches in short order. Having seen it used on more than a score of occasions, I am inclined to side with those who want it barred. It is a cruel vicious lock, one that requires no especial cleverness to secure, and once secured cannot be broken, provided the user has even ordinarstrength, which all the big wrestler have. If a man hasn't sense enough to give up (and many have the mistaken idea that "gameness" requires a man to take a chance on broken bones rather than quit), no one can tell what may happen. Suddenly, and ferociously applied, it means the breaking of a bone in the foot or ankle, and perhaps the leg. Slowly applied it means indescribable torture.

Yankee Rogers once had the toe hold applied by Frank Gotch, who knows better than anyone else how to put the terrible lock on a victim.
He afterwards said to me:
"When Gotch gets this clutch on you something's got to give. In my case he wasn't vicious and refrained from snapping it on quick. He simply sat on me and slowly but firmly worked my leg up backward, at the same time twisting my foot with his powerful grip. The sensation was as if every nerve, muscle and tendon in your entire body had been drawn as tight as a harpstring, and every time Gotch added a little pressure it was as if some one was twanging on the tightest strings with a hammer. I was terrible, absolutely terrible, and if the upper man had any person-enmity for his opponent and chose to go to the limit in grueling him it would mean that he might be cri-pled for life. I stood the pain until my eyes bulged out of their sockets.
Then, realizing the hopelessness of resistance, I tried to turn over on my back and allow the fall. But I couldneven do that. I was powerless in every muscle and could only gasp luckily the referee saw me trying to say something and asked me if I conceded the fall. I could still nod my head and gave up the match, as any man in the world under similar circumstances must have done. Take it from me, I want no further acquaintance with the toe hold."

If that isn't as brutal as the "strangle" I miss my guess.—Buffalo Courier.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia
In all its Forms can be Cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles it can be obtained at DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,

Priest to the Rescue in Gale of Wind.

The Rev. John O'Shea, curate of Ardmore, with a number of helpers, put off in a boat on Saturday morning in the face of a gale to rescue the crew of the Montrose schooner Teaser, which was wrecked off the Waterford coast.

The party got alongside the wreck and found two men, who were, however, so exhausted that they died before reaching shore. Father O'Shea administered the last sacrament.—Daily Mail, March 28.

C. L. B. Annual Winter Sports.

A large gathering of the friends of the C. L. B. attended the C. L. B. Armoury last night to witness the annual indoor sports. This is the 8th season that a similar event has taken place. After the rendition of the programme the prizes were presented by Mrs. R. F. Goodridge, wife of Capt.
Goodridge, who congratulated the tume race did not go to E. Whitten, lowing passengers came by her in the Banker Huron Sailing.

The banker Huron, Capt. W. Martin, of New Perlican, sails to-day for Quebo Bank to make her first trial for codfish. Capt. Martin will go to Long Harbor, P. B., where herring are reported plentiful and where she will take a bait supply. It was the intention to have the vessel docked, but there being no room at the Dry Dock a diver was sent down to examine the bottom, found it all right, and she will not receive a cleaning up until the voyage is over.

More Fishermen Gone.
About 100 fishermen left by the S.
S. Glencoe last night, most of them going to Springhill Mines where they have secured work, and will receive very good wages; others will follow during the coming week by train and steamer. Most of these men are from Conception Bay.

Special Evening Telegram.
LONDON, April 6.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, famous throughout the country as "the £20,000,000 baby," that being the amount the child will one day inherit, figures prominently in the newspapers again to-day as the result of a report that the anxious parents have decided to take out an insurance policy against any ransom any eventual kidnappers may demand.

Mr. McLean is the son of a millionaire traction magnate and newspaper proprietor of Washington. He married Miss Evelyn Walsh, heiress of the late Mr. Thomas F. Walsh, a fabulously wealthy gold prospector. Since their baby was six months old Mr. and Mrs. McLean have displayed great anxiety lest he should be kidnapped.

Last summer a burglar attempted to break into their summer residence, and the parents were so alarmed that they had a special ironclad perambulator constructed in the form of a steel cage. In this, guarded by detectives, the £20,000,000 baby has ever since been taken for his airings.

A premium of 20s. per cent. has, says The Times, been quoted by the underwriters at Lloyd's to cover the payment of a total loss should "the infant of wealthy American parents resident in an American city" be kidnapped, and 10s. per cent. to pay any ransom demanded up to £2,000. The child is warranted to take the air in the "ironclad" perambulator, and to be guarded by three private detectives.
