

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.
Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. After they would pain dreadfully, now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read the print without glasses. It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now dispense with their expensive time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to spare the trouble and expense of eye getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Having the prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now, before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

How a Famous Scientist Proved to Whom the Above Article was Sent, that "Bon-Opto" is a very remarkable remedy. The doctor says: "I have never seen a case of eye trouble which was not cured by Bon-Opto. It is a wonderful remedy and widely prescribed by the medical profession. It is a true eye restorer and will cure any eye trouble in many instances or reduce the same. It can be obtained from any good drug store and by use of the very best method. It will be sent to you for almost every family."

"Lord Roberts" Here.

Not England's Great General Back in Flesh, But Dismounted Professional Entertainer.
(Hartford Times.)
"Lord Roberts," a professional entertainer and the smallest perfectly formed man in the country to-day, is stopping at Houlston's, and is attracting much attention both in the lobby and on the streets. Although twenty-three years of age, Lord Roberts is only three feet tall and his tiny but well formed shoulders can be spanned by a man's extended hand. To-day he was attired in a military uniform of khaki, and the effect was strikingly like that of a broncho. Another costume in which he has appeared is a dress made for a six months' old baby, and a cap of the size worn by a two-year-old child, both of which fit him perfectly. He talks with the knowledge and air that befit a man of his years, but his voice is low, thin and has quavering childish traits, and the effect is startling. When Lord Roberts smokes a cigarette, as he is fond of doing, the cigarette is more unwieldy for him to handle than is a stogie for a grown man, and when he smokes a cigar the picture presented is much the same as if another man attempted to make a tobacco baseball bat. Lord Roberts comes from New York and he has just returned from a vaudeville tour to the Pacific Coast. He came here by arrangement with Sage, Allen & Co., and gave exhibitions at their store.

The Bishop's Ring.

Souvenir of the War.
Bishop Russell Wakefield, of Birmingham, has a ring with a curious history. It is a reminder of the war, and of the Winton destruction of the beautiful cathedral of Reims. Some months ago he was allowed to visit the cathedral shortly after a bombardment. Coloured glass from the famous windows and broken fragments of the richly ornate stonework lay among the debris. The Bishop picked up some scraps of stained glass, of pure ruby and sapphire colour, and he has had small portions mounted in a new episcopal finger ring. He regards it as one of his most interesting souvenirs.
New sports waists are made to match silk petticoats.

Severe Headaches and Pains in the Back

Resulted From Deranged Kidneys
It is in vain to try to regulate and restore the healthful action of the kidneys until the liver and bowels are set right.
And just here is where so many kidney medicines fail. Kidney derangements almost invariably begin with constipation and torpidity of the liver. The whole work of filtering the blood is thrown on the kidneys, and in time they fail to stand the strain. The poison in the system gives rise to severe headaches, pains in the back and tired, depressed feelings.
Because they act directly on the liver and bowels, as well as on the kidneys, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are eminently successful in the treatment of kidney derangements.
Mr. William Loney, Marysville, N. B. writes:—"I am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anybody who is suffering from kidney trouble or constipation. I suffered

Forgotten How To Tremble.

Sheffield Telegraph: The Germans wiped the British into perturbation daily with these choice sentiments in 1914; and now they expect us to tremble when they say "terrible events" will follow because we do not bow the knee to Berlin. But it can't be done. We have forgotten how to tremble. Besides, it so happens that when the Germans were wasting their energies on their "Chant of Hate" we were weak; and now we are strong. We were so weak in 1914 that we did not know our own weakness. Providence concealed it from us; and also so blinded the Germans with hate that they could not see how thin was the fired line of brave Britons who blocked the road to Calais. The Germans were like Coriolanus, Anger was their meat; they supped upon themselves, and so starved with feeding. And we reserved what little strength we had for fighting; and the heroes of our gallant, tiny Army, with their small guns, held up the best-equipped, the best-trained, and the mightiest army the world, up to that time, had seen. If we could do that in the days of our weakness, what shall we not do, with the aid of Providence, in the days of our might?

Another Unnecessary Fire Alarm.

At 6 p.m. yesterday the West End and Central Fire Companies responded to an alarm sent in from the box at the corner of Adelaide St. and Water St., and on reaching the spot were directed to the scene of the supposed fire by a laborer who, seeing that they were flying from the chimney a few sparks from the chimney of Mrs. Bennett's boarding house one door west of the G. P. O., rang in the alarm. As their services were not needed the all-out signal was sent in three minutes after.
Persons sending in fire alarms should use a little more common sense and ascertain that there is real cause for an alarm before sending it in.

Obituary.

Passed peacefully away at St. Bride's, on January 24th, a well known and highly esteemed resident of that place in the person of Mr. William Foley. Deceased who was only 35 years of age had been enjoying good health up to a couple of months previous when he contracted a cold from which death claimed him as its victim. His death came as a severe blow to his young widow and two children; he also leaves a father, mother, one sister and three brothers to whom sincere sympathy is expressed.

LITERATURE.

Most people who have things to sell now profit from H. C. of L. The farmer's butter, eggs and oats bring in the plain and fancy groats. The man who sells us shoes and boots, the one who deals in all wool suits, all charge the limit and repeat. But writers, in their squalid lairs, can't raise the prices of their wares. The poet has to purchase meat, and leather caskets for his feet, and every hour the prices rise on things that threadbare singer buys. The prunes that cost ten cents are selling for twenty cents a pound, and so it goes, the whole list round. But when he sweats in his abode, and grinds a grand and deathless ode, he cannot go around and say, "The price of rhyme's gone up to-day; so many poets have been slain, where armies rage on Europe's plain; that there's a dearth of noble rhyme, and so I've raised the price a dime." He cannot put this scheme across, for art is now a total loss. The men with henfruit, hay or cheese, may charge such prices as they please, but but they who make the muses sweat, must take whatever they can get.

Ministerial Pick-me-ups

Pitt's Pork Pies.
Mr. Lloyd George performed his recent remarkable feat of speaking for nearly two hours with an occasional sip of water, preceded by a voice lozenge. Mr. Gladstone was very partial to egg-flip on the occasion of his great orations. The veteran statesman brought the nourishment in a bottle of handy size, and deposited it on the table in readiness for his needs. Sir Robert Peel, generally prepared himself several custards which were made in small white basins about the size of a breakfast-cup. At the present time the same type of custard in the same type of cup basin is provided by the refreshment department of the House of Commons. The great William Pitt delighted in a pork pie after a big speech. It is said that when he heard of Austerlitz on his death-bed he exclaimed, "Roll up the map of Europe," but Disraeli gave it as his opinion that Pitt's dying words were, "Oh, for one of Bellamy's pork pies."

Your Boys and Girls.

Children think so much more completely than their limited vocabulary allows them to openly express, they seem so with actualizing and not always vain imaginations, that they won't impudently try to crowd a mass of thoughts and experiences into a few words and syllables. This only too often explains their anxious stuttering. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance to have children who are thinkers, learn to speak slowly and deliberately without impetuosity. The impulsive, voluble boy who rushes headlong into the dining room and tries, between gulps of porridge, soup and other dishes, to tell you about the day's doings, is the very child that must be cautioned to hold up, to stop a moment, and to speak very slowly. This is the boy who must learn to take a long, deep breath before he starts to talk. Have him breathe deeply and count ten before he begins his narrative.
