Love's one day sale. Sat. Jan. 31st. Herbert Leon Cope, who will visit Aylmer in the Lyceum Course, under the auspices of the King's Daughters, next Wednesday night, Feb. 4, has seen a lot of this old world. A dozen years ago he was the biggest hit on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms of America. He broke every return engagement record ever set up, coming back as many as twelve times in a few seasons to speak to audiences of capacity size. He preaches the "Religion of Laughter," and his remarks contain bushels of common sense too. Get your reserved seats early for everybody is going to hear Cope.

In a letter received from Mr. Geo. Young, who is spending the winter at the home of his daughter in Indianapolis, he relates he had the pleasure of hearing Herbert Leon Cope, the noted humorist in that city recently. "Cope made his appearance in Indianapolis, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and at one of their big meetings held in the English theatre gave as his subject "Kill the Blues." He very plainly demonstrated his ability to do the trick by keeping an audience of several thousand persons in roars of laughter throughout his entire programme. Don't fail to hear when he comes to Aylmer." Mr with the erection of an armoury on Cope will give a humorous lecture in the site they own on John street Aylmer under the auspices of the Kings Daughters on Wednesday, Feb. 4th.

The Public School Board met on Saturday evening last, and organized for the year with Dr. W. J. Fear, as chairman. Miss Case having tendered her resignation as secretarytreasurer, much to the regret of the board, it was necessary to secure a successor, and the Board was fortunate enough to secure the services of Mr. W. W. Rutherford to fill this important position. The entire teaching staff were granted an increase in their salaries, which has long been below the average paid in towns similar in size to Avlmer. Ther action in this regard should meet with favor from the ratepayers.

What might have proven a serious fire was discovered just in time one day last week. Mr. Orton was engaged at Dr. Clark's barn in putting sleighs on George Allen's hearse, when he smelled wood burning. On investigation it was found that one end of the building was on fire havng caught from hot ashes which had been dumped near it that morning. Help was quickly secured and by shovelling snow on the blaze it was soon put out. Had not some one been in the building no doubt it would have been badly damaged. Love's one day sale. Sat. Jan. 31st. The sad death occurred on Friday norning at the home of James Oron, of Eunice Cook, daughter of the ate Chas. Cook, of Richmond. Death was the result of heart trouble. Miss Cook, who for some years past has been employed by Mr. Orton as nousekeeper, had been subject to atacks of this nature. Mr. Orton and on, returning home at noon on Frilay were shocked to find Miss Cook, who, when they went to work in the morning had seemed to be in good health had been stricken by the fatal lisease since their departure. Deeased, who has been faithful and kind, has a host of friends who will learn with regret of her sad death. She leaves to mourn, one sister, Mrs. J. W. Pound, of Detroit.
