CANADA'S HIGH-CLASS PIANOFORTE

BUY

Why buy a MASON & RISCH PIANO?

Because

The Firm of Mason & Risch has educated the Canadian people to believe in them-selves, and to realize the fact that it is not necessary to go outside of their own country for the highest class of Art Productions.

Because

The Mason & Risch Piano, by its Brilliancy and Purity of Tone, its Sympathetic Quality and Refinement, and Elasticity of Touch and Durability, has won the in-dorsement of the highest Musical authorities, as evidenced by letters from Liszt, Muller-Hartung, Mackenzie, S. P. Warren, Torrington, Aldous, O'Brien, Fisher, and others.

WESTERN REPRESENTATIVE G. P. HARRISON

Mr. Allenby's Statement.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISEE:

The ADVERTISEE is a little astray if its reporter thinks I was satisfied with Mr. Liddicoatt's treatment of my son. I was not. What I did say was, "I was satisfied if that was the lawful means of punishment, if not I did not want it to occur again with my child or anybody else's." I was not aware that the matter had been treated so lightly until I heard what had happened before I entered the Board room, of which the Free Press has a correct report. Before I arrived Mr. Liddicoatt denied having punished the boy at all, and Mr. Currie, in his statement, intimated that I should go before the Board with a lie. Of course Mr. L was present and the Board could not discuss the matter as they would like. As regards the well-known character of Mr. L., I could bring others who have had similar treatment at his hands. For the benefit of Messrs, Currie and Smith, who moved and seconded that I am right, and will have witnesses to urvey my stream of the server was treatment at the server was treatment as the server was treatment and who doubt my varaely. I am determined to prove that I am right, and will have witnesses to prove my streatment as the server was treatment. moved and seconded that my communication be filed, and who doubt my varacity. I am determined to prove that I am right, and will have witnesses to prove my statements to the satisfaction of the Board, and if Mr. Liddicoatt has broken the law, the school trustees ought to give him to understand that any future occurrence will be dealt with as the law provides, and if the motion is not rescinded I will have to matter tried by a magistrate. Thankin, you, Mr. Editor, I remain yours truly, J. B. ALLENBY.

GETTING INTO SHAPE.

Colored Residents of Kent County Wi Have Their Rights.

Colored Residents of Kent County Wilhave Thoir Rights.

The following is contributed to the Advertiser by a Fletcher correspondent. The convention of colored residents Kent county held in Victoria Hall, Chand, on Saturday was fairly attended about 70 persons being present. The small tendance was owing to the fact that teall was only for delegates. Mr. W. Bazy took the chair and Mr. Chandle acted as secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed and reported as follows regarding delegates: Chatham towns 5, Dover I. Chatham township 2, Harwich 2, Raleigh 8, Tilbury East 2. The delegates then called Mr. J. C. Richards to the chair and Mr. R. L. Holden acted as secretary. Considerable business was the patched in a business-like manner, a there was an occasional sly glance at you, correspondent when knotty questions came up. The committee on constitution made a partial report and asked for an extension of time, which was granted, and the meeting adjourned to meet in the same hall on Feb. 21 at 1 p.m., when a final adoption of the constitution will take place, and every colored person in the county, both men and women, are requested to be present. It these times of hurry and competition every race in the civilized world is organizing protect itself but the colored man, a he has been taught to wait for southing to turn up; but he now busit to see like other men that he muget out and turn up something, as he is being badly left in the race. Others see that we are divided, and they trample our rights under their feet and hurl insults in our faces. We have been begging for justice for over 40 years, but that day is past. The law makes no distinction, and it only remains with us to demand and fight for our rights in the schools and court are a reading and thinking one, and is now preparing to act. I hope the interest will never lag until every right has been secured. To do this we have many obstacles to surmount. We have been taught to betray each other and to fight against our own interest, but we are now preparing secured. To do this we have many obsta-cles to surmount. We have been taught to betray each other and to fight: against our own interest, but we are now preparing to ground these arms and take up weapons in defense of the progress and future greatness of the race, and I make the call to every colored person. To arms! To arms! and fight for your own and your children's rights. Unite and demand justice as the law directs."

Russian Hatred of the Hobrew.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A St. Petersburg correspondent declares that the only result of the memorial to the Czar, adopted at a meeting held in the Guild Hall to present against the treatment of the Jews in Russia, is redoubled persecution of the Jews. The citizens' memorial sent to the Czar on Jan. 22, regarding the treatment of the Jews, has been returned to Lord Salisbury through the ambassador without comment.

The Irish Leadership.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—It is probable the McCarthy meeting set for Thursday will be postponed, or if it is held that only an incomplete statement will be possible. Parnell considers the Gladstonian assurances inadequate, and it is said he declines to pleage himself to retire beyond the present session of Parliament, and insists on retaining control of the Irish party until the next general elections. A section of the Liberals intend on Thursday to demand that the negotiations be broken on the ground that two much deference is paid to the position and claims of Parnell. The Irish Leadership.
