> Robert Irwin, of Blackfriars street, West London, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Rider and Nickle, and came up for trial at the police court this morning. A week ago the police received a letter from John C. Woods, of Woods' Fair, who was spending a few weeks with his wife and family in Muskoka. The letter stated that six $20 gold pieces and three $10 bills had been taken from one of his brother's pockets, while the brother and Irwin, who had accompanied the party, were sleeping in a boat house. They returned to the city Saturday night, and a warrant to search Irwin's rooms was secured. The prisoner protested innocence until after two hours' search the money was found in the inner pocket of a valise carefully wrapped in a piece of paper. Two valises of crockery and chinaware and other articles were also found in Irwin's rooms. prisoner, who pleaded guilty in the police court, had been in the employ of Mr. Woods for over two years. Busy Business at the "Three Busy Stores."

The "Three Busy Stores" have never belied their name at any time, but since the fall millinery opening began, the aptness of their distinctive title has been unusually apparent. The quality of the goods that are sold there is of an unexcelled standard, the public knows this, and knows besides that the prices bureau of mines to have been struck are as low as it is possible to get them; hence the fact that there are three stores, big, bright, busy places, where all tastes and all purses may be suited. It has been this care in catering to the wants of the people as regards both goods and prices that has placed the that locality. "Three Busy Stores" where they are to-day. The growth from one small store to three big well-stocked establishments has not been caused by spectacular effort, but by earnest and suc-cessful endeavor, such as is now evibest on the market, and present it to north long., 52.30 west, to Belle Isle The millinery displayed at the "Three
