THE CARLING CUP.

What will become of the Carling cup this winter? is a question that arises with the first sign of ice. The Seventh Regiment team won it last year and redeemed themselves, by the victory, from other lossess they experienced during the season. It is not known that the Seventh will have a team to defend the cup, and if they do not they will have to put the cup up for compatition among the other teams encotition among the other teams encotition. that they will have a team to represent the city in the contest for the cup, and that the city will be able to retain it for another year.
