London Adbertiser. TWO EDITIONS DAILY - WEEKLY. TELEPHONE CALLS.

London, Thursday, September 1.

The Governor-General.

The rumor that the Duke of Marlgreat detriment of the highest interthis type. In the years immediately before and after confederacountry profited greatly by Lord Monck and Lord Dufferin. Lord ing him have Mr. Kendry's conception Monck played an important part in of Mr. Chamberlain's policy, namely, shaping the national project. Readers of Pope's biography of Sir John Macdonald are told that the Governor- raising of foodstuffs and raw materials. tarded legislation, and that he theatened to lay down office unless they showed more energy in pushing the exposed if Mr. Chamberlain ever Lies in the middle of the zoo Beside the bear and kangaroo. confederation plans. Lord Dufferin reaches the stage at which he will be And somehow books get stowed away profoundly influenced public opinion by empowered to negotiate with this In stalls where horses ought to stay.

And toys climb up upon the shelves, carried himself unimpeachably through the crisis of the Pacific Scandal.

of responsible government under the system, the Governor-General has dwindled almost to a cipher politihere is nothing in the office t shining qualities-only a of discretion. A show of urbanity, more or less social ostentation, a smooth co-operation with the Government of the day, and the avoidance of controversial topics, will make a successful Governor-General. add luster to the office, howhis personal gifts, especially by the gift of graceful speech, and by philanthropy has ceased to have an active function in our constitutional sys-

But since the country has become

Ontario as a Summer Resort.

of Ontario are only be lakes, studded with and the abundance of oka, the Georgian Bay northern lake districts, at these resorts are within a day's reach of the neighboring states and of nearly every point in the Prov-

of American tourist over-crowding, as the expanse of lake

An Example of Candor.

Mr. Kendry, Conservative M. P. for West Peterboro, is president and manis class, makes no hypocritical pretense of favoring a policy of imperial our destination let us try to avoid givpreferential trade. In an interview he said he "wished it distinctly understood that he was opposed to the preerential policy advanced by Mr. Chamberlain in every particular." He (Mr. Kendry) said that as he understood it, the policy was, briefly, that "the manufacturing should be done in England and that Canada should grow the the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which has been cabling its sympathy to Mr. Chamberlain. Yet we fancy the sentiment expressed by the Peterboro man is closer to the convictions of his brother manufacturers than are the resolutions they have been passing. It would conduce to a etter understanding between the nother country and Canada if those who hold Mr. Kendry's views would be as frank in making them known. We have the spectacle of the leader of the Opposition, which is tied hand and foot to the Manufacturers' Association taking the ground that the Canadian Parliament should declare for Mr Chamberlain's policy, when he must know that Mr. Kendry's opinion is secretly shared by those who control the policy of the Conservative party. silver-plate?" They would, if they had the power, exclude from this country all British products which compete with the pro ducts of Canadian industry.

While Mr. Chamberlain may be under no illusions many who are support that it will give the colonial markets to British industry, and that the chief function of the colonies will be the reproached members of the It is better that they should be undeceived soon than late. In pulling the wool over their eyes the Canadian Ding-leyites are storing up trouble for the empire. This false friendship will be world seems upside down! He may find that the securing of his mandate from the British people to enter into preferential relations with the colonies was easier than carrying it into effect.

Two Kinds of Rays.

[Boston Herald.] "The dim religious rays," which the poet speaks of as stealing through the stained glass windows of the great church are not in it with the big, distinct religious "raise" of $45,214 which Rev. Dr. Simpson, the famous Christian Missionary Alliance exhorter of New York, secured by his vigorous denunci ation of selfishness at the Old Orchard camp ground last Sunday.

His Lacks.

[Chicago Record-Herald.] 'Don't you think he lacks aplomb? asked Mrs. Oldcastle. "Well," replied her hostess, "I don't know, but at dinner the other night it did seem to me as though he couldn't get enough peaches."

As It Affected Him.

[Philadelphia Press.] "I saw Henpeck today and he said h "Why, he's at home, isn't he?" "Yes, that's what he meant."

My Malady.

(London Punch.) am not feeling very well today; I know not what the malady may be; ess than a week ago I felt as gay And active as a-grig.

But I am sad; I get no rest at night I tremble at the buzzing of a gnat; ot take my meals with appetite; My heart goes pit-a-pat.

vigor-and my sprightliness-have The social qualities my friends enjoyed me; I desire to be alone, And not to be annoyed.

know there's nothing wrong with limb or lung Or liver, as the flippant might suppose (Rejoice, all you that love me, for my tongue Is like a red, red, rose). But there's a something-though I can't say what-That burrows—though I couldn't tell you where;

Nor could I even stroke th' affected spot, And say. "The pain is there." This is not one of those established ills Which of their nature leave an outward not make one pale about the gills, This malady of mine.

'It is the little rift within the lute"; Some fatal, undiscoverable germ
That by-and-bye will make the music mute
And drag me to the Worm. And am I then beyond all human cure?

And will the grim old Gardener come

My flower of beauty, just when it's ma Really, it's shocking luck! No, no, a thousand times no! Pale phantoms, hence!
Away with morbid thoughts and empty

Tis Love that weaves this enervating

Love whose familiar darts have laid me t always used to make me feel unwell;

And yet, how softly through my being ling at the New York House.

At first he deemed the would How innocent, how young it makes one feel To be in love again!

Bite on, dear Germ. For though the heart glad To think I've got it in me!

does his best to make light of things. The chronic borrower discovers that the closer a man is the harder it is to Actions speak louder than words by he clothes of some men are louder than

Putting Them Off the Scent,

[Pick-Me-Up.] Bride-George, dear, when we reach ing the impression that we are newly-George-All right, Maud; you carry this portmanteau.

The Last Chard

(Liverpool Porcupine.) Seated one day at the organ, I was anxious and ill at ease,
For I found upon inspection
There were several missing keys;
I knew not what I was playing,
(Tho' 'twas hymn two hundred and ten),
But it made a row like a starving cow,
When it came to the grand "Amen" When it came to the grand "Amen!

of a sound so wild and weird; crept inside on hands and knees. And found just what I feared. The "Flute" and the "Vox Humana" The "Flute" and the "Vox Humana" Were mute and declined to sing, The reeds, alack! showed many a crack, And I tied them up with a string. The bellows I neatly mended

With the blower's trouser brace, managed well to secure the swell With a stamp and an old bootlace out I'd made my efforts vainly, I lost my temper then, And said a word which the parson It didn't sound like "Amen!"

Cheap.

[Philadelphia Press.] "I notice," said the stranger, "that you use a metal tray instead of basket to take up the collection "Well," said the minister, "judging from the contributions it seems to be nickel-plate."

> True Wisdom. [True Wisdom.]

But what are past or future joys?

When Betty Sweeps.

[Youth's Companion.] When Betty sweeps the nursery Wrecked by her devastating broom, Where we can't reach them by ourselves While often to the rubbish heap Go things we'd greatly like to keep,

For though you might not find them Last week we lost the spears and swords That Betty used to call "old boards."
But then she does not care to fence
And never dreamed of tournaments. And never dreamed of tournaments.

And once some worms we meant to prize Until they turned to butterflies.

And once we lost Aladdin's lamp,

The tent, where Indian-like, we camp, Before that broom so quickly falls, Smooth folded into mother's shawls. Our castles tumble in, and where The ocean used to roll a chair

Into my heart when Betty sweeps! Enough Said.

Rocks safe. Oh, such a sadness creeps

[Harper's Weekly] First Passenger (promenading on the deck of a liner in midocean, to second leaning disconsolately passenger, against the rail)—Have you dined? Second Passenger (dejectedly)—On the contrary.

Useful Automebiles.

[Nebraska State Journal.] In rural England the automobile has outrun the trolley in opening up to travel districts that have heretofore had little connection with the outside world. The large auto busses are able to make twenty-five miles an hour, and they succeed in winning a profitable patronage even in regions that cannot support either steam or electric railroads. It is unnecessary to add that nothing of this kind can be expected more nearly approach the European

My Courtin'.

(W. E. French, in New York Tribune.) Whin Nora an' me was a-walkin' Lasht night by the light o' the moon, Twas ownly in proverbs she'd answer-But I'm thinkin' I'm her gossoon.

Sez I. "May I love ye, dear Nora?"

Me heart, just listen, stud still;
Thin I heard her, the rogue, say, "Why. Paddy, I hear 'iv'ry Jack has his Jill.'" Sez I, "May I howld ye, mayourneen?"

An' I sthole me ar-rm 'round he She whispered, with blushes entrancin', Sez I, "Do ye love me, ye angel?

I've loved ye since ye was a kid."
Her eyes in the moonlight grew tender;
She sighed, "'Love, like smoke, can't be hid.'" Sez I, "May I kiss ye, acushla?" The cunnin', perverse little elf; She smiles an' sez, "God helps him

'Who is afther helpin' himself.'" Sez I, "Lay yer head on me shouldher," (Swate lips! Faith, I'd hardly begun), Sez she, "Thim owld proverbs is wis-

Sure, 'Two heads is betther than one.' Sez I, "Will ye marry me, darlin'?"
God bless her! I knew what she mint:
"Ah, lover," sez she, "I'll be spachless;
For 'Silence,' dear lad, 'gives consint.'"

BITTEN ON THE TONGUE

Performer Attacked by Rattlesnake Dies in Few Hours.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 1.-Tues-At first he deemed the wound trivial The dolorous joys of Love's delicious and only used a little whisky. Feeling ill he retired to his room, but as his tongue, face and head began to swell he hastened to police headquarters, where the police surgeon, Chapin, recognized his condition as exceedingly serious and sent him to the Memorial that thou, and thou alone, canst Hospital. During the afternoon he became unconscious and died at 5:30 o'clock. The snake was not one of but was owned by the proprietor of the hotel.

able in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills makes lose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vialatt 25 cents; five for $1. Some druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York Small Pill Small Dose. Small Price

a solemn oath that he would place a wedding ring on the fourth finger of my left hand. I married another, and now that my husband is dead and my friends all gone I would not have my former lover go back on his oath. If he is living I wish an investigation to be made. His name is Carl Neuning, er. of 6,887 East Main street, Columbus, "I have no more to live for, and 66 inches wide......45c ..for...33c will make this strange request, that cut off and sent to the man whose name I have given." This is the letter discovered in the sleeping room of Mrs. Laura Renoss. 66 inches, all linen, regular. 65c...for...50c 70 years old, whose body was found yesterday hanging in the attic of her 72 inches, all linen, regular..90c...for...75c home at 79 Thorne street, in Jersey City. In the confusion following the discovery of the woman's suicide the letter was overlooked, when the undertaker who had charge of the body made Hemmed Huck Towels, at doz......$1.25 The undertaker immediately preparations to carry out the reques but he was stopped by Coroner Brack- Fringed, large size, 22x43, at doz....$1.50 "But it was the wish of Mrs. Renoss," he expostulated. The matter was finally settled by

of the fingers missing. LEOPOLD AND ROOSEVELT

Frmer Wants President to Help Stop Far East War.

New York, Sept. 1. - G. Francotte, special envoy from the King of Belgium, arrived here on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., and is going to NOT SO YOUNG AS PICTURE Oyster Bay to ask President Roose velt to use his influence toward stopping the Japanese-Russian war. The minister is one of 37 delegates from Belgium, who arrived in the ship to attend the International Peace Congress to be held in St. Louis Sept. 7. M. Francotte, who wears many decwas specially instructed to seek Mr.

Roosevelt's aid. He said that he was, magistrate, is able to return Japan and ed to give a $2,500,000 temple of peace. Leopold thinks it is worth while ad- but she did not recognize him.

my conference with Mr. Roosevelt will had advertised for a wife and with be, but I hope that he will ask Secretary Hay to take up the matter and been in correspondence. She in turn replied that she had extended to find a young man, but acknowledges suggest that in future the powers send pected to find a young man, but ach delegates to meet onve every few years on common peace grounds. At all events, even if Mr. Roosevelt declines once to a minister, but the woman de strife, I hope that he will make some suggestions that will enable the countries throughout the world to meet on of the Rev. Mr. Robeson, pastor of the more peaceful footing."

HEIR TO EARL MISSING

to Him Cannot Be Found.

Brandon, Aug. 31.-This afternoon the clothes, with $3 and a watch, belonging to Albert W. Walker, a man employed as ledgerkeeper in Hanbury's the way Hoagiand the but she flatly mill, were found on the banks of the her to have the knot tied, but she flath Assinaboine River, just north of the refused. They then left the second Assinaboine River, just north of the mill. Walker had left a note at his boarding house saying: "I have gone swimming, 5:07 a.m." He was an Englishman with a college education, and enjoyed a substantial remittance from England. A few days ago he received a letter from some English solicitors, earlier as the woman from Nebraska refused to enter the house, and, after much parleying, went next door and told her story to Mrs. Collier, who took her in. There she remained over night delibliam and heir to large estates in England, yielding an income of about $500,000 per annum. He had spoken to his

He had spoken to his

He had spoken to his age and send her a young man's fellow-employes about this. He came photograph, but also called himself to Canada about four years ago, "Doctor." He sent her $28, which she and has been doing odd jobs since then, used for her traveling expenses. There had been over sixty years of lit-sadder but wiser. igation in connection with his title, but Peter Hoagland, son of the aged car it is said to be at last clear and legal- penter, said that his father was a ly settled. Search has been made for least 70 years of age and that he ha day morning Prof. Alfred Thurston, a his body, and is still proceeding, but been married twice and has four chil-snake performer, was bitten on the the impression is gaining ground that dren. The son intrinsplant the following he has not been drowned, but that he matrimonial aspirations of the father wished to leave the city quietly. The peerage records no vacant Earlom of Fitzwilliam.

HELD LIMITED TRAIN

Held While the Conductor Ihrashed a Disturber.

HOUSEHOLD LINENS

This Special Sale of Household Linens is a bargain chance that economic shoppers should take advantage of at once.

Tablings.

Unbleached Tablings-Special Values.

60 inches wide...... 40c...for...29c

Bleached Tabling-

Towels and Toweling.

Roller Crash Toweling, yard.....6c to 12c

Brown Crash, yard.....8e to 121/2e

You Will Need More Linen for Fair Time.

As the time for the Fair is near at hand, with consequent need of more Table Linens, Towels and Toweling, Quilts and Bedspreads, all hotelkeepers, restaurant owners and others are especially asked to come and secure some of our bargains.

Values Are Here Both in Quality and Price.

70c Quilts for 50c.

CANADIAN QUILTS, 10-4 size, good quality, suitable for single beds; regular price 70c, on sale at......50c

MARSEILLES QUILTS, 11-4 size, special values, regular $3.25 ones for ... $2.50 $3.75 ones for.....$3.00

12-4 size, finest satin finished, extra bargains; regular $3.75 Quilts for ...$3.00 $4.25 ones for.....$3.50

ENGLISH QUILTS, fringed English Quilts for brass bedsteads, 11-4, at $1.35 12-4, Special Scotch Knitted Cotton, regular $3.75 for.....$2.75 $4.00 Quilts for.....$3.00 13-4 size, $4.00 Quilts for.....$3.00

Glass Cloths, each..... 10c to 121/2c $4.50 Quilts for.....$3.50 "What We Advertise

of Household

mit the body to be mutilated in any way, and it will be buried with none of the formal distribution of Girl Came to Wed, But Refused To Be an Old Man's Darling. crations, including the Knight of the railroad station in Bound Brook for Order of Leopold, the highest honor in several days, glancing frequently at the gift of Belgium, was asked if he the photograph of a woman in his hand, attacted the attention of many persons on Sunday. Obviously he was "King Leopold is of the opinion that expecting some one to arrive. His President Roosevelt, above any other expectations were fulfilled last Sunday Russia to a peace basis. Our King is afternoon, when a good-looking wovery much interested in the subject man of about 30 stepped off a train of universal peace and the settlement and inquired for George Hoagland. He of delicate questions by arbitration, was there. Mr. Hoagland recognized in the United States until the roads fully aroused since Mr. Carnegie offer her from a photograph he held in his hand as the woman he was expecting, dressing the other leading governments on the subject.

Then followed a little colloquy. Hoagland, who is a carpenter and 60 "I do not know what the outcome of if a day, said that he was the man who nowledged that Hoagland's credentials seemed all right. Hoagland proposed that they go at murred. Rather than make a scene however, she got into a carriage with Bound Brook Methodist Church. woman gave her name as Miss Minnie that she would not marry Hoagland, as he was not young enough and did Brandon Man With $500,000 Coming not look like the photograph he had sent her. Then the couple got in the carriage again and went to the residence the Rev. T. C. Anderson, pastor of the Bound Brook Reformed Church. On a letter from some English solicitors, erating as to whether to sue Hoagland saying he was the legal Earl Fitzwil- for damages or to go home. Later he was promoted to ledgerkeeper. She returned yesterday to Nebraska > had been rather trying. SHE HAD GRIT

Woman Returns Highwayman's Fire and He Decamps.

Danbury, Conn., Sept. 1. - Mrs. F. F. Spencer, wife of a Greenwich clergy-

The Broiler Door -big enough to admit a large-sized broiler or toaster easily and just above the glowing coals - no trouble to broil steak or make toast with this door. (Ever occur to you that the most delicious steaks are the broiled ones?) This point has been given special attention in the Pandora Range-It's an Ar broiler. Sold by all enterprising dealers-booklet free. M^cClary's London, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, St. John, N.B.

WM. STEVELY & SOH, 362 Richmond Street. J. C. PARK, 663 Dundas Street, London East.

THE FINEST SWEETS FOR DESSERT ARE

Queen's Dessert Chocolate, Chocolate Cream Bars. Chocolate Ginger, Chocolate Wafers. Milk Chocolate.

THEY ARE PURE AND GOOD.

THE COWAN COMPANY, LIMITED, TORONTO. ONT.

Jonah has now been corroborated in The Vienna Allgemeine Zeitung says: Elkhart. Ind., Sept. 1.—The fast New man, and daughter of Dr. Henry Hart-York-Chicago Lake Shore Limited was well, the aged New Milford physician, Schell in the Archaeological Museum Russia's ill luck is one, Russia's slov-Tabloid Philosophy.

Tabloid Philosophy.

Tabloid Philosophy.

Thurston came from New York and went by the enterprise of stantly opened up by the enterprise of the railways, in response to the demand. All this means a great source of revenue to Ontario, and will spread a favorable knowledge of Canada in the United States, which will make for Iring the United States, which will make for Iring the Iring t held at Kendallville while Conductor who was robbed of $5,000 by highway- at Constantinople has on it an Assyr-enliness is the other. It is deeply root-