LOCAL MARKET.

London, Wednesday, April 5. Hay was the feature of the market today. There were loads of hay in the market, mostly at the higher figure for the best loads.
Several loads of oats sold at $1.21 and $1.22 per ton; there was not enough to supply the demand.
Straw was dull, at $5.50 per load.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Excepting on Saturday, the markets the past week were only up to the average. The farmers took advantage of the fine weather of Saturday to bring in their produce. The result was one of the liveliest markets in several weeks. Although the supply of produce was unusually large, even for Saturday, there was a good demand for everything offered, with the exception of apples and potatoes. There was no material change in prices from those quoted; if anything, they were a shade easier.

Grain—The supply of oats is on the light side; the demand and prices are firm, at $1.19 to $1.22 per ton. Early for feeding purposes sells at $1.12 and $1.15 per cwt. for seed, a number of sales were made at 90c per bu.

Hay and Straw—As in the previous week, the supply of hay was large, amounting to about 40 loads; sales are brisk, as many of the housekeepers and the proprietors of the large livery are having in a quantity of hay, in anticipation of higher prices. The price of hay is becoming general; present prices paid are $3 to $5.50 per ton for the best loads; most of the sales are made at the higher end of the range. Straw is in fair demand at $6 per ton.

Dairy Produce—The demand for butter continues to be brisk, although prices are a shade easier; sales are made at 22c to 23c per lb for crocks and 24c to 25c for choice pound rolls; store lots are dull, at 20c to 21c. Eggs sell readily at 14c to 15c.
