

Do you Believe in going straight to the weak spot in treating disease? If so, you will never use anything but Peps for coughs, colds, bronchitis, and throat and lung troubles. Listen why!

Peps are tiny tablets, which contain rich medicinal ingredients, so prepared that they turn into vapour in the mouth, and are breathed down to the throat, the breathing tubes and lungs direct.

Cough mixtures go—not to the lungs and chest at all, but to the stomach. There is absolutely no direct connection between stomach and lungs.

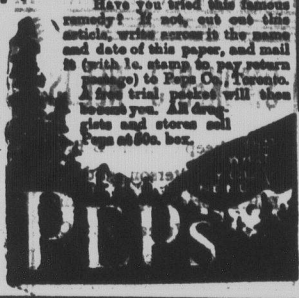

When you have a bad cold, your digestion is weakened. You lose appetite, and if a man, your usual smokes does not "taste good." In other words, your digestive system is lacking tone. All cough mixtures make this condition worse.

Don't ruin your stomach to heal your lungs. Take a remedy that goes right to the spot—Peps.

Surprising how they cure coughs, catarrh, bronchitis, sore-throat, "clergyman's throat," asthma, and all lung troubles. Contains no poison, and are best for children.

Dr. Gordon Stables says:—"If you wish to ease and end a cough, if you desire to loosen sticking phlegm, and clear the throat and the breathing tubes, use Peps. The pine fumes and balsamic fumes, so beneficial to throat and lung troubles, which are liberated when a Peps is put into the mouth, also serve another good purpose. They are strongly germicidal, and purify the disease in the mouth, on the palate, in the throat, and in the breathing tubes, are at once destroyed by their action."

Have you tried this famous remedy? If not, cut out this article, write across in the margin name and date of this paper, and mail in (with 1c stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. If few trials will show you how Peps will clear your throat and loosen all coughs and colds, you will be glad to see them.

Chatham world:—Is it a matter of tradition or merely a figment of our fancy, that a will was once contested because it was signed with a steel pen instead of a goose quill? It is a fact, however, that a St. John will has been solemnly contested because it is typewritten. But the Judge of Probates has sustained the will and thereby recognized the typewriter as a legal substitute for the pen. This is an age of progress.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz, Mrs. P. H. Bogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says: "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

Shigawake and Hopetown

The Agricultural Society held their annual exposition in Shigawake on Friday, the 10th inst. It is hoped that a large number will turn out.

The reading-room in connection with the Church of England Parish here, continues to be a source of attraction to all the young people who are looking forward to a pleasant fall and winter, as this is the first time that anything like institutional work has been attempted here. Two long tables have been fitted up in the parish hall, and every Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, are filled with papers, weeklies and magazines.

The harvest festival in Hopetown will this year be held on Thursday, Oct. 16th, consisting of a service in the church of St. James, at which the Rev. A. T. Love, B. DALHOUSIE

Mr. Alexander G. Burr who arrived here last week to be Manager of the Dalhousie branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia was for a number of years accountant of the Bank of New Brunswick, Halifax, and recently was Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Hantsport and Aylesford.

Mr. J. W. Macdonald of Stellerton, N. S., who first opened the Nova Scotia Bank in Dalhousie about ten months ago and who has been transferred leaves us under very favorable conditions. Not only does he leave his successor, Mr. Burr a growing business, but socially he made many friends during his short stay here. Proof of this was given last week by the generous action of his friends. On Friday 15 young gentlemen friends presented him with a very handsome pipe and a cigar case.

On Saturday evening a committee representing the business men of the town met Mr. Macdonald in the rooms of the Dalhousie Social Club and Hon. C. H. LaBillicois on behalf of about twenty citizens read the following address which was accompanied by a complete travelling suitcase.

It is not very long since you arrived in Dalhousie to take charge of the affairs of the Bank of Nova Scotia here. Immediately you started taking an active part in the organization of our winter sports. Winter over, you devoted your energy towards making baseball a live factor in this town. And it is due to your efforts that hereafter the boys will have something else to do on Summer evenings than to stand around the corners trying to conjure up something to do. We appreciate the interest you have thus displayed and will feel the loss that your departure will entail.

It is not only in this line you will be missed. Church goes will miss hearing your melodious voice ringing forth on Sundays from the choir. The business men will miss your genial assent and approval to a small deposit or discount of a 30 day note. The girl, and they are an important factor in this and every town, will miss your warm clasp and moist chocolate. In fact we feel safe in saying that we all will miss you and always will be glad to welcome you back. We all wish you the best of luck. May the future see the fulfilment of all your cherished desires. Nothing would please us more than to hear of your appointment as General Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia. We trust that you will accept this token as a slight mark of our esteem.

The correspondent who signs Tourist to a letter published in the October number of the Canadian Magazine "La Revue Populaire" shows what a nice impression strangers have of this section of the Dominion when they take the trip from Campbellton to Gaspe on board the S.S. Canada.

After referring to the charms of the Matapeia Valley, the writer refers to the quick growth of the town of Campbellton since the fire. He calls it a town of business. First stop, Dalhousie, small but stirring town at the entrance of the Baie des Chaleurs, beautiful scenery, a panorama which unfolds itself without interruption during the voyage. Carleton Place, New Richmond, Bonaventure, etc. At this point the writer refers to the pretty girls who took the Canada to attend the Grosse Regatta. New Carlisle, here, the writer describes a London village, nice homes, English men and English ladies, pretty misses, healthy babies, dandies with eye-glasses, it is charming. Paspébiac, small of fish, large establishments with branches at different points, St. Godfroi, Port Daniel, a little mountain where there is a tunnel worth seeing. Fabos, where American capitalists have undertaken to build up one of the greatest lumber centres in Canada. Grand River, a little spot of activity. At day-break the Canada enters Perce Harbor, magnificent. Every body is on deck. To describe Perce and its rock, and the subject justice is impossible, states the writer. He says it resembles scenes in the Alps of Switzerland. Gaspe is reached. What a spectacle of beauty, etc. The correspondent speaks about the kindness extended to tourists by the officers of the Canada. The quick trip made from Campbellton and return. The trip of his life, and thanks in particular Mr. G. A. Bine, the sympathetic president of the company, who looks out for the comfort and amusement of the passengers.

Councillor D. A. Arseneault and Mrs. Arseneault of Balmoral paid Dalhousie a visit on Tuesday.

Mr. A. E. G. McKenzie, Campbellton, was here on Friday a guest at the Queen.

Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reneau, Misses Mona Neilson, Nettie Robinson, Emily Martin, Katie Nolan, Melba Lawlor, Misses Yvonne and Lucy Samson, Misses Eliza and Jean Miller, Messrs Wm. McKay, J. Garry, W. Lawlor, J. Nolan, C. Hicks, A. Lagere, A. Miller, Robert Turner, Leo Samson, Mr. Levesque, J. Thompson, G. McKinnon, H. Simpson and J. Ed. Deane. All present expressed a wish for many more such evening during the winter.
