SUCCESS--POWER

Smile a While

The only wrinkles that people don't object to are the ones that come from smiling.

Smiles and frowns leave their impress on your personality as well as on your face. Tendencies toward cheer or gloom are habits. They can make or unmake your career.

Success or reverses come into every full life. Both are necessary to the development of your character. You can learn to face the less welcome with the same sure heart with which you meet the other.

Throw false optimism away. But, remember, that plain and simple good cheer is the best weapon against adversity.
