NOTICE

Our Mr. Sancton will call upon the subscribers of this paper during the month of December, and we most ear nestly ask that each one called upon will do what they can for us. We are owing for the material &c. which we have been using during the summer and the parties want and must have their pay. A great many of our subscribers are far in arrears, and we hope that if they are not at home themselves when we call, that they will leave some part; if not all of what they owe us, with their wives for us to obtain when called to be attiful model and built in a most beautiful group them.

Honored annual holiday, which is observed throughout all Christendom, will have passed away. The earliest recolous visits of Santa Claus and Euclide with the mysterious visits of Santa Claus and Ciristmas festivities. We extend to myll down the extension of territory and possession of a seaport.
