DICTÉE

THE BOY BATHING

A little Boy once went in bathing where the water was too deep for him. He soon found himself sinking, and cried out to a Man who was passing by, to come and help him.

"Can't you swim?" asked the Man. "No," replied the Boy.

"How foolish you were, then," said the Man, "to go into deep water! Didn't you know better?"

"Oh, please help me now, or I shall drown!" cried the Boy. "You can scold me when I am safe on shore again."

There is a time for every thing.

Que les élèves trouvent des expressions équivalentes pour les mots en italiques. Par expressions équivalentes, nous entendons des expressions qui pourraient être mises à la place des mots en italiques, sans que le sens des phrases en fût altéré.—Little, small.—Once, on one occasion.—Bathing, swimming.—Sinking, going to the bottom.—Cried, called.—Help, assist.—Asked, inquired.—Replied, answered.—Cried, exclaimed.—Again, once more.

EXERCICES SUR LES ÉTATS FINANCIERS

Nous donnons maintenant un nombre considérable de Balances de Vérification. Au moyen de chaque balance les élèves établiront deux états: l'un de l'Actif et du Passif, l'autre des Profits et Pertes. Si les élèves ont bien compris les leçons déjà données, ils seront capables de faire ces états sans le secours du maître.
