EDITORIAL.

We are happy to say that our appeal for aid in selling the paper has been promptly responded to. Grade II of Prince Street School especially has done very good work in that direction.

Have not any of our fellow pupils yet got sufficient confidence in their powers of composition to contribute a short article?

By compassion we make others misery our own, and so, by relieving them, we at the same time relieve ourselves also.

Actions, looks, words, steps, form the alphabet by which you may spell character.—Lavatel.

True courage and courtesy always go hand in hand. The bravest men are the most forgiving and the most anxious to avoid quarrels.—Thackeray.

A triumph in engineering is reported from the mountains of Peru, where a twin-screw steamer of 540 tons, 170 feet long and 30 feet wide, has been successfully launched on Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable waters in the world, more than 13,000 feet above the sea.

Compliment the students on their energy and industry in bringing out this little paper, and show their encouragement by occupying this space.

Wishing the students success
