

| Case No. | Insanity.                       | Duration of Insanity. | Hereditary.             | Ovarian Diseases.                                                                 | Operation.                        | Complications.                                                 | Results.                           |             |
|----------|---------------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------|
|          |                                 |                       |                         |                                                                                   |                                   |                                                                | Physical.                          | Mental.     |
| 1        | Chronic mania.                  | 4 years.              | None.                   | Both ovaries cystic and enlarged.                                                 | Ovariectomy.                      | Cysts of broad ligament.                                       | Recovered.                         | Recovered.  |
| 2        | "                               | 11 years.             | Nephew.                 | Left ovarian tumor (cyst).                                                        | Ovariectomy.                      | None.                                                          | Died on the 12th day of pneumonia. | Improved.   |
| 3        | "                               | 21 years.             | Consin epileptic.       | Left ovarian tumor (cyst).                                                        | Ovariectomy per vaginum.          | None.                                                          | Recovered.                         |             |
| 13       | "                               | 33 years.             | Paternal grandmother.   | Both ovaries diseased and adherent.                                               | Ovariectomy.                      | Retroverted uterus.                                            | "                                  | "           |
| 36       | "                               | 14 years.             | Consin.                 | Left ovarian tumor (cyst).                                                        | Ovariectomy.                      | Retroverted uterus.                                            | "                                  | Recovered.  |
| 44       | "                               | 7 years.              | Uncle.                  | Left ovary diseased and ruptured.                                                 | Ovariectomy.                      | Lacerated cervix and perineum.                                 | "                                  | "           |
| 51       | "                               | 5 years.              | Father.                 | Left ovarian tumor (cyst).                                                        | Ovariectomy.                      | None.                                                          | "                                  | "           |
| 56       | Psychocoma.                     | 1 year.               | None.                   | Both ovaries diseased and adherent.                                               | Ovariectomy.                      | Retroverted uterus.                                            | "                                  | "           |
| 62       | Chronic mania.                  | 2 years.              | Father and mother.      | Right ovary fibroid and left ovary cystic.                                        | Ovariectomy.                      | Retroverted uterus.                                            | "                                  | "           |
| 64       | Acute mania.                    | 1 year.               | None.                   | Both ovaries cystic and prolapsed.                                                | Ovariectomy.                      | None.                                                          | "                                  | "           |
| 67       | Chronic mania.                  | 14 years.             | Two brothers.           | Ovarian tumors (cyst) and adherent.                                               | Abdominal Hysterectomy.           | Fibroid tumor of uterus.                                       | "                                  | Improved.   |
| 80       | "                               | 8 years.              | Aunt.                   | Right ovarian tumor (cyst) and left ovary prolapsed.                              | Vaginal Hysterectomy.             | Chronic metritis, uterus displaced and cervix badly lacerated. | "                                  | Unimproved. |
| 85       | "                               | 8 years.              | Mother and sister.      | Both ovaries prolapsed and completely cystic.                                     | Ovariectomy.                      | Uterus retroverted and a concretion in appendix.               | "                                  | Improved.   |
| 88       | "                               | 2 years.              | None.                   | Both ovaries cystic.                                                              | Vaginal Hysterectomy.             | Complete procidentia of uterus and torn cervix.                | "                                  | "           |
| 90       | "                               | 5 years.              | "                       | Papillomatous cyst of left ovary weighing 16 lbs., partly fluid and partly solid. | Abdominal Hysterectomy.           | Uterus involved in cyst mass.                                  | "                                  | Recovered.  |
| 100      | Acute mania (folie circulaire). | 6 months.             | "                       | Both ovaries completely diseased.                                                 | Ovariectomy.                      | Uterus acutely anteflexed.                                     | "                                  | Unimproved. |
| 102      | Chronic mania.                  | 16 years.             | Father, uncle and aunt. | Both ovaries prolapsed and diseased and adherent to pelvic contents.              | Abdominal Hysterectomy.           | Uterus and all pelvic organs involved in mass.                 | "                                  | Recovered.  |
| 103      | "                               | 23 years.             | None.                   | Left ovary found containing a left inguinal hernia.                               | Ovariectomy (via inguinal canal). | Left inguinal hernia.                                          | "                                  | Unimproved. |
| 111      | Chronic folie circulaire.       | 4 years.              | "                       | Both ovaries diseased, the left being also adherent to a coil of intestine.       | Ovariectomy.                      | Uterus retroverted and cervix lacerated.                       | "                                  | Recovered.  |
| 129      | Acute mania.                    | 14 months.            | Brother epileptic.      | Left ovarian tumor (cyst) and right ovary also diseased.                          | Ovariectomy.                      | None.                                                          | "                                  | "           |
| 137      | Epileptic mania.                | 10 years.             | None.                   | Both ovaries prolapsed and cystic.                                                | Ovariectomy per vaginum.          | None.                                                          | "                                  | Unimproved. |