Imitation!

Is the weak man's inspiration and the highest point ever reached by a numerous class in the community. Without the ability or perseverance to work from an independent basis, they cling like barnacles to ideas emanating from others, and with perverse blindness believe them to be their own. Now that explains why that widely known and much appreciated remedy, PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR, has a dozen or more imitators. Not having sufficient merit in themselves, unprincipled dealers, for a larger profit, palm them off on unsuspecting and confiding customers as "just as good," &c. Beware of all such and use only Putnam's Corn Extractor. Sure, Safe, harmless. N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston proprietors.

The best skilled workmen in Naples get but thirty cents a day.

A Hint.

When you ask for a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain Killer, and the gentlemanly storekeeper, without scarcely looking, remarks, "We are just out, but have another article as good or better, which sells for the same price, viz., 25 cents," turn on your heel and say, "Good bye, Sir." That man cares more for the two or three cents extra profit which he gets than he does for your health or happiness.

St. Margaret's Home

666 SHERBROOKE STREET.

A need has long been felt by those interested in works of charity in the city for a home for incurables. The hospitals had no room for them, other institutions could not take them in, and just when one needs all the care and comforts that human aid can give, and when the hope of restoration to health has been taken away, the unfortunate, whose case was pronounced hopeless, had to leave the home or hospital where for awhile he had been sheltered, to suffer the privation of a poor man's home. Now, however, there is a chance of this need being supplied. The sisters of St. Margaret's (Church of England), from Boston, have taken a large and sunny house, No. 666 Sherbrooke Street and on or about the 8th May it will be open for the reception of incurables, and works of charity in general which do not come under the scope of other institutions. Although managed by sisters of the Church of England, the home will be absolutely unsectarian, and persons of all denominations will be received, and may be visited by the clergy or ministers they prefer. The good work that English sisters are doing may be seen in New York, Boston, and other large American cities, where the hospitals, homes, and nurseries for children are among the most heart-cheering sights of the 19th century. The refining influence of ladies, and the self-devotion that works for love, cannot but produce an effect on those who, alas, are brought so seldom under the influence of either. To do a work of this kind, however, funds are needed. A guarantee endowment would enable the sisters to extend the work to cases that would be otherwise out of their reach. It remains, therefore, with the public how far the home is to be a success. The amount of money needed is not very large, and it will indeed be a pity if we let pass this chance of ministering to the sufferings of those who, though so poor and helpless, are nevertheless our brethren in the sight of God.
