

A PAPAL ALLOCUTION.

DELIVERED AT THE CONSISTORY OF FEBRUARY LAST.

See XIII speaks of His Negotiations With European Powers and Has a Few Words to Say About the Necessity of Peace—The Mission of the Church Outlined.

Venerable Brethren, you know the great error, owing to which the present age has seen many persons, gradually separate themselves from Jesus Christ and the Church.

ABUSES IN THE ARMY.

Another Victim Relates His Experience.

It has been suggested that a mass meeting of ex-Salvationists be called to discuss and testify to the truth of the statements made by others in the News as regards the Army abuses, and in this they would have the hearty co-operation of many ex-officers outside Toronto.

My own experience is as follows—For the first year as a cadet I was very well fixed, and have some very pleasant recollections of the work.

For a whole day this Father in Israel toiled and prayed with me, and falling to get it, he began to pray for me as a renegade and backslider, and damned me up in down in his petitions in my behalf.

Since peace consists in the tranquillity of order, it follows that justice and charity ought to be the bases of harmony between individuals and states.

There are the great and holy motives and reasons, Venerable Brethren, by which we are actuated and led into every project.

Another Ex-Officer Tells His Story. Mr. J. Black is a well-known city contractor and builder, who formerly was a member of the Salvation Army.

Yes, I know something of the inner history of the Army. I was connected with the Salvationists for nearly three years, and left them about three years ago.

THE USE OF FRENCH.

A LETTER FROM MR. JOHN J. MACLAREN, Q. C.

English Not So Freely Used by the French as Some Years Ago—Growth of the French Population—French in Eastern Ontario and in the Maritime Provinces.

To THE EDITOR.—You are probably right in your expectation that English will continue the language of this continent; but the hope that a hundred years hence there may be four or even five hundred millions of English speaking people in North America is rather a poor consolation.

It is increasing use, not only in Quebec, but in Eastern and Northern Ontario, is notorious. See how rapidly the English are being crowded out of these sections, and how many districts where there were not long ago large numbers of English are now exclusively French.

The French majority in the whole Province was 12,621, and in 1881 it was 4 to 1. In 1881 the French majority was 12,621, and in 1881 it was 4 to 1.

FARM AND HOME.

SHEEP FOR SURETY.

There have been many ups and downs in the business since my boyhood; many changes from sheep to something else, and back again, and many thousand sheep have been slaughtered for their pelts and tallow alone in times of depression.

FLAVOR IN BUTTER.

Too often the milk or cream is set in vessels of such depth and shape that perfect aeration is impossible. But to obtain a full, rich, nutty flavor in butter, the cream must be well exposed to pure air for at least 36 hours.

HOW TO RAISE QUINCES.

A successful quince-grower in the west attributes his success to the fact that most of his trees were set in low, mucky ground, and with such shelter that their fallen leaves and those of the adjoining apple orchard made a good annual mulch.

UNDERDRAINING LANDS.

Many farmers are repelled from underdraining by reading reports of the great expense incurred wherever a regular system is undertaken. But for ordinary farming such expense is entirely unnecessary.

HINTS FOR HOUSE CULTURE.

When but few plants are needed, and no hot-bed or cold frame is at hand, the custom of sowing seed in small boxes to be placed in the window is a good one.

PRACTICAL NOTES.

Laying hens rejoice in a variety of food. They will eat almost anything that is left over from the table, and it cannot, at least in the country, be put to better use.

TO THE EASTERN PART OF THE PROVINCE.

THE EASTERN PART OF THE PROVINCE, but also the northern section, especially along the line of the C. P. R., is filling up with French.

It is worthy to note that not only in Ontario and Quebec, but also in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia (the only other Provinces for which the census gives the necessary data), the French increased much more rapidly than the rest of the population.

TO THE WEST.

It is worthy to note that not only in Ontario and Quebec, but also in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia (the only other Provinces for which the census gives the necessary data), the French increased much more rapidly than the rest of the population.

will it cost to put up a few boards over a favorite vine that annually just barely makes ripening its fruit?

Such being the facts and prospect, what should be our policy in this Province? This letter is already too long to attempt to answer this question.
