it attempted to amend the Agreement. The Chairman overruled this objection and held that no unanimity was necessary as the Resolution was merely designed ed to find a solution to a particular incident. The 8 Resolution was accordingly declared passed by the Chairman by a majority vote under paragraph 1 of Article 34.

There followed a discussion in the Commission as to whether the difference of opinion on the point taus of order raised by the Polish Delegation should not be referred to the Co-Chairmen of the Geneva Conference. It was finally decided there was no need to follow this course. The recommendation was formally sent to the 'Pathet Lao' and the Royal Laotian Government on 23rd and 28th April respectively. or October.

The Polish Delegation then urged that their point of view should be conveyed by the Secretariat ed to the Parties simultaneously with the text of the Resolution. The Chairman ruled that no provision existed for informing the Parties of a minority opinion and refused to accept the Polish request. Thereupon the Polish Delegation declared that the Resolution was "not binding for anybody" and announced its intention - which it carried out bevielater - to inform the Parties direct of its ni pointiofiview. Teoroo stalkiquoo suo Temun this area. These included allegations of and The reply from the High Command of the Fighting noise Units of Pathet Lao' rejecting the recommendation bewas received only on 11th June. (see Appendix 'G').

84. The Fixed Team, Kieng Khouang, conducted the following investigations: qoort vara lancited

Muong Peunaupa mori stronger ent to emoc i.

still under consideration. The Commission received complaints from both Parties concerning attacks on each other in the Muong Peun area during the months of January, Two investigations were carried out. The Team found that both sides were using encirclement and pressure tactics Maisos I resulting in threats of annihilation and ensev eintimidation towards each other. On some eloccasions, fighting took place. The Team found mathat the villages in the area changed hands quite frequently - sometimes through evacuation and at other times as a result of force. In view of the numerous complaints in this area, the Commission ordered a Sub-Team to be sent to Muong Peun area one of the since remained. We then the season of the seaso

vii. Hua Kieng sitos I adt to basmmoo ngit ent

The Royal Laotian Government alleged that the Fighting Units of 'Pathet Lao' attacked the Laotian National Army post at Hua Kieng. While the Indian and Canadian members of the Team concluded that the 'Pathet Lao' had attacked this post, the Polish member felt that there was insufficient evidence to substantiate this allegation. The Commission is still considering the report of investigation.