

1. The Requested Party, shall through the channels stipulated in Article 3 of this Treaty, notify the Requesting Party in written form of the results of the execution of the request. As appropriate, notification shall be accompanied by any proof of service or evidence obtained.
2. Proof of service shall contain the date, place and a description of the method of service. It should be signed by the authority who served the document and by the addressee. If the addressee refuses to sign, the proof of service should include a statement to this effect.

ARTICLE 12

ASSISTANCE IN THE REQUESTED PARTY

1. The Requested Party shall, upon request, inform the Requesting Party of the time and place of execution of the request for assistance.
2. To the extent not prohibited by the law of the Requested Party, the Requested Party shall permit the judicial personnel or other persons concerned in the investigation or proceeding in the Requesting Party to be present when the competent authorities of the Requested Party carry out investigations or provide other assistance pursuant to a request and to pose questions and make a verbatim transcript in a manner agreed to by the Requested Party.

TESTIMONY BY THE DETAINED PERSON

1. For the purpose of testimony by personal appearance, a person in custody in the territory of one Party shall, at the request of the other Party, be transferred to the Requesting Party, provided the person consents and there is prior written agreement by the Central Authorities on the conditions of the transfer.
2. In accordance with the request of the Requested Party, the Requesting Party shall keep the person transferred to its territory in custody and shall return that person to the Requested Party at the conclusion of the testimony or within the time limit agreed to by both parties.
3. Where the Requesting Party receives notice from the Requested Party that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person shall be set at liberty and treated as a person giving assistance or evidence as provided
