

Enforcement of International Obligations: Environment, Labour, Human Rights, Cultural Diversity - Issues and Approaches

Table of Contents	Page
Background	1
Structure of the Report	2
SECTION I
A. INTRODUCTION	3
B. ENVIRONMENT	4
1. Compliance and Enforcement	4
2. Alternatives for Enforcement of International Environmental Obligations	5
a. Strengthening Compliance and Effectiveness of Existing and Future International Environmental Regimes	6
i. Improving MEA Design
ii. Coordinating MEA Secretariat Functions
iii. Creation of an international "forum court"
b. "Greening" the Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA)	7
i. Including Environmental References in the FTAA
ii. Mainstreaming Sustainable Development
iii. Use of Trade Measures with respect to Non-Product-Related Production and Process Methods
c. Efforts Parallel to the FTAA	8
i. FTAA Side Agreement
ii. Stand-alone Agreement on Capacity Building and Cooperation
iii. Supra-national Public Advisory Body to the FTAA During and After Negotiations
3. Considerations	9
4. Government Policies and Approaches	9
C. LABOUR	11
1. Compliance and Enforcement	11
2. Alternatives for Enforcement of International Labour Obligations	12
a. Using of ILO Article 33 provisions affording hard sanctions in particularly egregious cases	12