

4. Immediate return of supporting documentation, e.g., citizenship papers.

Passport application forms are available at all passport offices as well as at any post office, travel agency or airline representative office.