POSTAL STRIKE: PASSPORT CONTINGENCY PLANS

The Department of External Affairs advises that just in case there should be an interruption of postal services, the public should apply in person to one of the 18 regional passport offices across the country or one of the two central offices in Hull and in Ottawa to obtain their passports. Regional offices are located in St. John's, Fredericton, Halifax, Quebec City, Montreal, Saint-Laurent, Toronto, Scarborough, North York, Hamilton, London, Windsor, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria. All offices can provide a fast, personalized and assured service.
