

Public Servants' Training

Ottawa-Vanier for his brilliant and excellent speech, and I hope the study in committee will reflect a very enlightened approach.

[English]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Order, please. The amendment of the hon. member for Grenville-Carleton (Mr. Baker) reads as follows:

That all the words after "that" be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

"motion No. 4 respecting the establishment of a National Administration School be withdrawn, and the subject matter thereof referred to the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Estimates."

Is the House ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): The question is on the amendment. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the amendment?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Carried.

Amendment (Mr. Baker (Grenville-Carleton)) agreed to.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): The question is now on the motion as amended. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion as amended?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Carried.

Motion (as amended) agreed to.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): The hon. member for Grenville-Carleton (Mr. Baker).

Mr. Baker (Grenville-Carleton): Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you for your kindness in dealing with my amendment and seeing it put in proper form. This is a profound moment because the House of Commons has been able to agree to send a matter raised by private member to a committee.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Is it agreed that we call it five o'clock?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): The hour provided for the consideration of private members' business has now expired. It being five o'clock p.m., this House stands adjourned until Monday next at two o'clock p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At 4.50 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
