

Adjournment Debate

For the time being, we cannot reveal the details of that agreement in principle among the Deputy Ministers. First, we must give each Minister enough time to become familiar with it and to share his views with his colleagues. Hopefully that will be done within a few days.

The details of the proposed program will not be made public before the Ministers meet and the spokesmen for the producers have been consulted.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): Order, please. The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m.

At 6.28 the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
