

may be no fear that football or any other sport will become a primary object in any Canadian university, one may observe with a jealous eye the part that sport is demanding in the life of a Canadian student who is fortunate enough to possess a finely developed athletic body."