

SUMMER VIEW OF MONTREAL.
VUE DE MONTREAL, (ETE.) cal battalions of militia had ice; and the departure of nd the Montreal Garrison endence of vast crowds and 1. Their progress throughatched by our citizens; and ived a magnificent ovation of the people. The small-during the same summer, fe of a great number of our effect on the general busi-n fact travel of all sort—for fear of the contagion, man who had occupied a al life of old Canada, the execution of Louis Riel at d great excitement among mass meeting was held on able disturbance took place ents of late years has been ic Railway bridge, crossing us affording another link Southern systems. The ad affords to the passenger ake St. Louis on the one chine Rapids on the other, f the work, the enormous s, and the rapid current in the bridge was built and short space of time.

hasty sketch of the city's ble to point to its present mong Canadian cities, and c of the great marts of the er a quarter of a million e first place in the solidity ouses, and the residences b natural advantages she her surroundings, and in avigable reach of a great the part of her citizens to ration, and to introduce ent, she may never fear ommercial supremacy. ntury, ranked first among always be if her citizens f commercial enterprise marked characteristic.