

national groups or sections or other departments may be formed, with the view of collecting information on the social or domestic status of the people, for the Local Association. In Montreal national groups, or sections, may report directly to the General Association.

8. Local representation shall be based on the principle of one representative for every 25 members, and on the payment to the General Association of $5 for each representative by the Local Association. National groups, or other sections, may arrange their own affairs, subject to the approval of the Local Associations.
9. It shall be competent in each Local Association to form a class of students, or analysts of social phenomena, who shall be trained to observe and collect facts, thereby facilitating the comparison of the data furnished from several localities.
10. The Association shall maintain the most cordial relations with kindred societies, and shall co-operate with Municipal, Provincial and Dominion Authorities in securing the best statistical returns possible ; in restraining social vices and promoting the best physical, social and moral conditions of the people.
11. Any alterations or additions to this constitution can be made only after due notice has been given—(at least one month previous).
