

reached with me the "old homestead." And, if you have been repaid for the amount of time and patience expended, I am heartily glad of it; and, if you have not, I hope I shall ever remain in "blissful ignorance" of the loss. Good-by!

THE END.