> selling emanating from Amsterdam which indicated further German liquidation. Steel Business Improves. Foreign exchange was again a dis-turbing element, demand bills on London falling to within a fraction of the low record, but making substantial recovery later. Reichsmarks sold under all previous quotations and foreign money markets were feverish, presum. ably as a result of the British chan-

of Russia's finances.

Advices respecting the steel industry were increasingly cheerful, almost all leading mills operating at greater percentage of capacity, but with little improvement in prices. Copper was at a standstill, with some shading from recent quotations.

State and municipal bonds figured to an unusual extent in today's dealings,
