

Brantford.

In visiting Brantford a second time, I think it behoves me to say a few words concerning this fair city: true I have not yet viewed it at its best, which would be when nature had dressed it in a new spring suit, still I think it to be one of the best of our young Canadian cities. Depression is felt to a certain extent, but in proportion to size I believe it is the busiest city in Ontario at the present time. The population is steadily on the increase, and now numbers over 16,000. Among the prominent manufacturing industries are the Waterous Engine Co., employing over 200 men; Buck's Stove Foundry; Courtland Carriage Co.; Bain Bros. Waggon Works; Gould Bicycle Works; Verity Plough Works; Massie-Harris Implement Works; Consumers, Cordage Co.; Cockshutt Plough Works; Dominion Cotton Mill; Wm. Patterson Biscuit and Confectionary; Schultz Bros., Manufacturers and Builders; the G.T.R. shops, and many of smaller calibre. Not the least important among the latter is the Henderson Manufacturing and Cycle Co., D. S. Henderson Manager; this firm has a reputation of turning out a good wheel at a moderate price—they are known as the "Common Sense Wheel," and comprise Bicycles and Pneumatic Sulky, and any reader who contemplates purchasing a wheel or sulky would do well to write to the Henderson Cycle Co. of Brantford for prices before purchasing, as their goods are sold with a guarantee to replace all breakage when caused by defective workmanship or material.

From a social point, I can only emphasize what I said on a former occasion, that I find the people I come in contact with very friendly and sociable, willing to give any assistance or information to help along a Catholic journal, and I am pleased to state THE REGISTER is well thought of by our many subscribers in Brantford, and the list keeps increasing steadily.

Branch No. 5 C.M.B.A. held their regular meeting Monday evening Feb. 25th, President Hawkins in the chair. I had the pleasure of attending and met with a hearty greeting. I am sure that No. 5 is made up of good material, the pleasant repartee indulged in being very entertaining. Another feature I was pleased to notice was, that two of the youngest members held two important offices, viz.: Bro. Comerford as Fin. Secy., and Bro. Walter Harrington as Vice Pres. The latter is the youngest member of the Branch, and I feel certain he will fill his position with credit, both to the Branch and himself.

In bringing up a child think of its old age.—Joubert.

The small courtesies sweeten life; the greater ennoble it.

No man was ever so much deceived by another as by himself.

It is commendable to correct the faults of others if we are free of them ourselves.

Always hold fast to love; we win by tenderness and conquer by forgiveness.—F. W. Robertson.

Every man is not so much a workman in the world, as he is a suggestion of what he should be. Men walk as prophecies of the next age.—Fulton.

Sir Arthur Helps had the happy faculty of putting expressions of wisdom into a few words. It was he who said, "Familiarity should not swallow up courtesy."

Modesty is not only an ornament, but also a guard to virtue. It is a kind of quick and delicate feeling in the soul which makes her shriek and withdraw herself from everything that has danger in it.—T. W. Higginson.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
 Death must be honored, 10 St. Peter, Cascade Co., Mont.
 A young half-breed Indian was suffering from falling sickness, it was a very bad case. Through some of my acquaintances I was induced to try Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and with very good results. The boy was perfectly cured and is now one of the strongest and healthiest in our school.

 I can have no doubts as to the value of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, for I have recommended its use where persons are afflicted with diseases of the nervous system and in every case the result was such that my own contribution in this respect was commended and its good name spread in the respective locality.
