

JESUITS AS EDUCATORS.

Hon. W. J. O'Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Pays a Tribute to the Memory of the Society.

We have received from Hon. William J. O'Shaughnessy, of Chicago, his address delivered on the occasion of the jubilee of St. Ignace College, Dr. O'Shaughnessy says an eloquent tribute to Father Ignace and his successors. The following sentences which describe the Jesuits as educators are particularly interesting.

The reign of the Society of Jesus in the province of education dates from the beginning of its history and is equalled only by its missionary fame. The distinctive mission of the Jesuit is the education of youth and the preaching and higher education. In the vocations they soon proved the necessity of the Jesuit colleges everywhere at that time. The Jesuit colleges everywhere at that time. The Jesuit colleges everywhere at that time.

Mr. Meek on the Manitoba School Question. Mr. Edward Meek, barrister, has received the following letter:

Archbishop's Palace, Kingston, Ont., Aug. 18, 1895. Dear Sir:—The Archbishop of Kingston bids me send you the following, which, if you choose, you may publish:

Sir—I have read your pamphlet. Although it is but a compendious narrative of the constitutional and historical facts bearing on the question now agitating the Dominion, it is so complete in its way, so lucid, and so rationally puts before the public those uncontroverted facts in simplest language, that no unprejudiced person can read it without being convinced of the justice of the claim of the minority in Manitoba to have their system of Catholic education restored to them under guaranteed conditions of efficiency, including Government inspection.

THE "RATIO STUDIORUM." The long and preliminary studies which the Jesuits are obliged to make, the training which they undergo, is the necessary preparation for their future vocation as missionaries and teachers.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God, to call from this life, our late brother and worthy president, Mr. Thomas Dolan, and while his brother association, by his will, submit to the will of Divine Providence, we nevertheless, keenly feel the great loss we have sustained in so good a member and officer, who has always sought to promote the best interests of our Association, and who had proved himself a good citizen, a kind husband and a loving father to the end, practicing and maintaining the deepest devotion to faith and family, and his prayers for the eternal repose of his soul.

Plain Words to Protestant Preachers. From the Louisville Western Recorder. Preachers ought to do some real physical labor. It will be good for them. If they will lay aside their umbrellas, Indian clubs and croquet mallets for a while and use the hoe, rake or wood saw occasionally, they will establish a splendid precedent for a large proportion of their flock, who, like themselves, are suffering from gout and dyspepsia, both material and spiritual. A little sweating of the face will be a relief to the conscience.

No "Three Estates of the Realm." E. A. Freeman's "Growth of the English Constitution." For all practical purposes there were only two estates in the English Parliament, Lords and Commons. Thus the phrase of the three estates, which had a meaning in France, became meaningless in England. For centuries past there has been no separate estate of the clergy, some of their highest members have belonged to the estate of the Lords and the rest to the estate of the Commons. Hence has arisen a common, but not unnatural misconception, as old as the Long Parliament, as to the meaning of the three estates.

Mrs. Wm. Fitzpatrick. It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mrs. Wm. Fitzpatrick of Fergus, Ont., which occurred on Wednesday, 7th August, at the age of 88 years. After an illness of six months she suffered through her long illness with great patience and without a murmur and passed peacefully away surrounded by her family, fully conscious to the last and perfectly resigned to the will of God. She was a faithful wife, kind mother and a good neighbor. Her firm faith and sincerity of the Church her unswerving fidelity and the fulfillment of all its precepts, and her unbounded charity rendered her life a happy and holy one, and the benedictions of that Church she loved so well surrounded her at that moment when all earthly ties were severed. The funeral took place from the family residence to St. Mary's church, Flora, on Friday, August 9th, and was one of the largest ever seen in this vicinity. The interment followed at 12 noon. Six members of Branch 110, C. M. B. A., wearing mourning badges, acted as pall-bearers. Rev. Father Cosgrove preached an eloquent sermon and explained why Catholics so frequently pray for the dead and spoke of a while on the great loss the family had sustained. The remains were then taken to the family plot in the R. C. cemetery and laid to rest. Mrs. Fitzpatrick leaves a husband and six children, the youngest six months old. They have reason to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, who fulfilled every duty which these sweet names imply. But it will be to them a consoling reflection that for earthly career was a continual preparation for the everlasting glory of Heaven. R.I.P. Resolution of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Fergus Branch No. 110, C. M. B. A., on August 13th, the following resolution was adopted: Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, has been pleased to call to her eternal rest the beloved wife of our esteemed Financial Secretary, William Fitzpatrick. Be it therefore resolved, that we the members of Branch 110, C. M. B. A., tender to Brother Fitzpatrick and his bereaved children, our heartfelt sympathy in their sad affliction, and earnestly pray Almighty God to grant them grace and strength to bear with resignation the affliction which He in His wisdom has been pleased to send them. It is also resolved that this resolution be entered in the record of this Branch, and that a copy of the same be given to our respected Financial Secretary, and sent to the official organs for publication.

IN DEEP DESPAIR.

A MONTREALER RELATES HIS WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE.

He had Tried Foreign and Local Physicians and Was Operated Upon Without Success—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured When all other Remedies Failed.

Instances of marvellous cures by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are numerous, but the one related below is of special interest, owing to the peculiarity of the illness, and also to the fact that in the present instance the gentleman who was cured by the use of the Pink Pills, is a man of high social position, and is now apparently in good health.

Mr. Charles Frank, inspector of the mechanical department of the Bell Telephone Co., at 371 Avenue Street, and who resides at 51 Argyle Avenue, in an interview with Herald reporter, related the following wonderful cure by the use of Pink Pills. Mr. Frank, who is 25 years of age, has a Russian by birth, exceedingly intelligent, nervous and naturally thin, and is now apparently in good health. "My illness came about in a peculiar way," said Mr. Frank. "Up to three years ago I was in the best of health. One day, however, while in Glasgow, Scotland, where I was employed as a clerk in a hotel, and while sculling on the Clyde, a storm came up, and I was nearly roughed by a sailor. I evidently must have injured myself internally, although I felt nothing wrong at the time. On my way home, however, I fell ill on the street, and had to be conveyed home in a cab, as my legs were utterly unable to hold me up. I was confined to bed for several days in the same helpless condition, when I rallied, but found the urine was of a strange reddish hue. I tested
